NATAL DAY OF NATION KEPT

Cities of California Observe Holiday With Pageantry

Parks and Playgrounds in Oakland Scenes of Frolic

Scotch games at Shellmound park, exercises in the city's public playgrounds and drills by national guard organizations today are being held in observance of the nation's birthday. While the celebration is by law "safe and sane," and the festive fireworks of old times is barred, the youngsters have taken with enthusiasm to the special programs planned for the day by the playground department, and, according to the playground officers, the absence of firecrackers has made practically no difference in the day.

Many of Oakland's lodge members today journeyed to Livermore, where an old-time celebration, with "broncho busting" features, is being held. Concord also drew visitors, and the army and navy field meet at Fort Bragg island attracted many Oaklanders.

HISTORY DEPICTED.
Do Fremery park presented the most elaborate pageant of the day. The landing of Columbus, the founding of American colonies, the dream of Betty Ross, and the making of the flag, all were seen. Children from the Poplar Street, Tompkins and Prescott playgrounds were represented in flag alleaux.

Bushdod park drew crowds. There was a miniature parade, followed by special games and a program, the celebration to close this evening with a dance in the clubhouse. Bicycle races, a fifty-yard sack race, races for married women and girls, and all sorts of picturesque and straight athletic events, combined fun and interest. In the evening fireworks will be seen at the playground and the city will take place at the Washington school.

GOLDEN GATE PROGRAM.
The Golden Gate playgrounds a flag-raising ceremony, with patriotic songs, occupied, with the first heats of track events, the morning hours. This afternoon basketball contests, track finals and games are going on.

The Bella Vista playground opened this morning with a flag-raising ceremony, followed by girls' races, volleyball games, and other contests. This afternoon's program opened with an exhibition of folk dancing, in which

SPEEDS 300 MILES

Eddie Rickenbacher Wins Sioux City Auto Speedway Event.

SIoux CITY, Ia., July 4.—Eddie Rickenbacher won the 300-mile classic of the Sioux City Speedway Association this afternoon by finishing the 140 laps three and a half laps ahead of Spencer Whistart. Ralph Mulford, who took Alley's place, finished third and Patschke fourth.

Rickenbacher's time was 3 hours 51 minutes 20 seconds. The average speed was 56 miles an hour. Alley's time was 3 hours 51 minutes 20 seconds. The average speed was 56 miles an hour.

Sioux City was the morning for thousands who came to see the 300-mile automobile race for a $25,000 purse. Twenty or more drivers, many of them of international fame, were ready to start with the explosion of a bomb dropped from a circling biplane at 11 o'clock.

Since yesterday noon a ten-ton steam roller has been ironing out the track, with the result that the cars will speed on a track said to be faster than any dirt track ever traveled over by a racing machine.

Following is the official list of starters:

- 1. Driver.
- 2. Gil Anderson.
- 3. Ed Palmer.
- 4. George Mason.
- 5. Billie Knipper.
- 6. W. J. Shrink.
- 7. Spencer Whistart.
- 8. Barney Oldfield.
- 9. Cyrus Patschke.
- 10. Mel Stringer.
- 11. Harry Grant.
- 12. Ralph Mulford.
- 13. Howard Wilcox.
- 14. George Backcock.
- 15. Eddie Rickenbacher.
- 16. Thomas Alley.
- 17. Jack Le Cain.
- 18. Ed Callowett.
- 19. George Jessup.
- 20. Billy Chandler.

On the 16th lap Knipper led, with Rickenbacher second and Gil Anderson third. Alley's car took fire and Alley was killed.

DROPPED IN AT CAFE; PULLED OUT; GOES TO HOSPITAL

L. E. Safford "dropped in" last night at a local cafe, and as a result spent most of his time last night at the Emergency hospital, while cooks and chefs at the restaurant repaired damage to ragouts and pastry occasioned by his sudden but disastrous visit.

The "dropping in" was in this wise: Safford had been sitting on the guard rail surrounding the glass skylight over the basement where the cooks work. He rocked gently to and fro on the rail—and rocked too far.

The man fell about ten feet into the midst of pots, pans and other cooking apparatus. He was extricated and hurried to the hospital, where it was found that he had suffered cuts, bruises and a probable concussion of the brain. He was removed to his home, 1015 Channing way, Berkeley, today.

BATTLE ON AT DALY CITY

Big Holiday Crowd Sees the Murray-Chip Fight

DALY CITY, RINGSIDE, July 4.—Billy Murray of California and George Chip of Pennsylvania entered the ring here at 2:30 this afternoon for their twenty-round battle, which is expected to develop a real claimant for the middleweight crown. A big holiday crowd began to stream into the arena at 1 o'clock, and when the middleweights were finally called together the attendance was estimated at 7500. Betting at the ringside was 10 to 5, with Chip favorite.

Earlier in the day the odds shortened from 10 to 2, but swung back to the same figure they were yesterday. It was announced that both men had made the required weight of 155 pounds without difficulty. Many women were at the ringside.

The first preliminary, a four-round bout between Ray Richardson and Tommy Reynolds, was awarded to the former—decision.

The second preliminary, another four-round affair, brought together Charlie Givens and Freddy Hammond, lightweights. The bout was a draw.

Port Quarantine for New Orleans Ordered

NEW ORLEANS, July 4.—Federal officials began today the enforcement of quarantine regulations on outgoing vessels as a part of the campaign for the eradication of bubonic plague.

Under the personal direction of Surgeon G. M. Courport of the public health service, the fumigation of shipping in the harbor was initiated.

Regulations promulgated by Dr. Courport require fumigation of vessels prior to loading, the placing of 55-inch rat guards on lines and hawsers immediately after docking, and the placing of guards on gangways.

Congregations of the various New Orleans churches will be urged at services tomorrow to assist in the eradication work.

Business Men Are Off to See Wilson

CHICAGO, July 4.—A committee of Chicago business men has decided to represent the city in the conference to be held by President Wilson with business men of the country, and will leave for Washington Tuesday, it was announced today.

The committee is headed by Joseph H. DeFrees of the Chicago Association of Commerce, which named the delegation. Mr. DeFrees is a former president of the Chicago Bar Association. The other delegates are members of some of the largest firms distributing merchandise in this trade territory.

July Fourth Takes Death Toll

THREE BOYS DIE FROM INJURIES

Another Loses His Sight When Toy Cannon Explodes

Excursion Trains Collide; Score Severely Hurt

DULUTH, Minn., July 4.—Duluth's third "sane" Fourth of July opened with the death of a boy from tetanus, due to a wound from an exploding cartridge. William Peck, aged 14, was tinkering with a 45-caliber revolver, when it exploded.

MANY HURT IN WRECK.
MACON, Ga., July 4.—Six persons were seriously injured and more than a score hurt late yesterday, when a Fourth of July excursion train on the Georgia Southern and Florida railroad collided head-on with a Macon and Birmingham railroad passenger train, seven miles south of here.

Neither of the trains was running more than twenty miles an hour, according to witnesses, and it is believed this prevented the wreck from being more serious. The engines met on a thirty-foot trestle and were wrecked. Both trains, however, remained on the track.

The Macon and Birmingham train had a freight car between the engine and passenger coaches. It was demolished. Trains of the latter railroad from here use the Georgia Southern and Florida tracks.

TWO DIE IN CHICAGO.
CHICAGO, July 4.—Lawrence Butler and John Sullivan, each 13 years old, died today of burns caused by exploding fireworks. They are Chicago's first Fourth of July victims.

EXPLOSION BLINDS BOY.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 4.—Frank Denton, 15, may lose the sight of both eyes as a result of the explosion last night of a toy cannon, with which he was preparing to celebrate the Fourth of July tomorrow. Fragments of the cannon struck him in the face. Oliver Tedrow, a companion, was painfully injured.

THE SAME OLD FOURTH.
GREENSBURG, Pa., July 4.—David Corey lost his right hand and William Hix and Thomas Moore, boys, were injured, when the toy cannon with which they were celebrating the Fourth here exploded.

SMOKING EXPENSIVE

Oakland Bailiff's Mother Profits by New Englander's Habit.

By the terms of a peculiar will which has just been made known, it cost William Swain $20,000 for the privilege of smoking, in addition to the cost of the tobacco consumed. By the same will, the $20,000 was added to the share inherited by Mrs. H. C. Gilbert, mother of Bailiff Harry L. Gilbert of the Oakland police department.

Gilbert received word from his mother, who now resides in Los Angeles, that she has fallen heir to a portion of the famous Ezra Robinson estate in Charleston, Mass. It is understood that Mrs. Gilbert, who is 81 years of age, will inherit over $50,000.

William Swain, an old friend of Ezra Robinson of Massachusetts, was made the trustee of the estate at Robinson's death, some forty years ago. It was provided that Swain, during his trusteeship, should receive $3000 a year, provided he abandoned his famous old pipe and the use of tobacco. But if he continued to smoke, Swain was to receive only $2000.

Swain decided to smoke, and the $20,000 was paid to him.

WILSON AT CRADLE OF LIBERTY

Speaks on Patriotism at Spot Where Independence Was Born

President Addresses Big Fourth of July Crowd at Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, July 4.—Addressing the modernizing of the Declaration of Independence by applying its principles to the business, the politics and the foreign policies of America, President Wilson today addressed a huge crowd assembled in Independence Square, within a few feet of where the original declaration was signed.

The President touched on Mexico, the Panama tolls repeal controversy, his anti-trust program, business conditions, and his ideas of "modern patriotism." Pounding his fist on the table, which the Declaration of Independence was signed, he declared Americans today must manage their affairs in a way to do honor to the founders of the nation.

There are men in Washington today, he declared, whose patriotism is not shown, but who accomplish it in a shabby way. They are great patriotic things. They are staying in hot Washington, doing their duty, keeping a quorum in each house of Congress to do business.

"And I am mighty glad to stay and stick by them," he added.

WHAT ARE MOTIVES?
Touching on business conditions of the country, President Wilson said a great many allegations of facts were being made, but a great many of these facts do not tally with each other.

"Are these men trying to serve their country, or something smaller than their country," the President asked.

"If they love America, and there is anything wrong, it is their business to put their hands to the task and set it right."

Eighty-five per cent of the Mexican people, the President said, in touching on Mexico, and I regret that with all my heart, I wish to have a "look in" on their government or how the other 15 per cent were running it.

THINKS OF PEOPLE.
"I know the American people have a heart that beats for them, just as it beats for other millions," Wilson continued. "I hear a great deal about the property loss in Mexico, and I regret that with all my heart, I wish to have a 'look in' on their government or how the other 15 per cent were running it."

"I would be ashamed of the flag if we did anything outside of this country which we would not do at home," he said.

Garages Add Menace To Life and Property

CHICAGO, July 4.—In an aggregate of almost 16,000 fires throughout Illinois last year thirty persons lost their lives, 140 persons were injured and property worth more than $7,000,000 was destroyed.

Such is the gist of statistics compiled by Simon Kellerman Jr., of Edwardsville, Ill., for the Illinois State Fireman's Association.

Kellerman referred to the "mushroom" growth of public and private garages and the increased use of gasoline and automobiles as one of the chief causes of the increase in the number of fires.

Slain Archduke and Consort Interred

'RESIGN,' IS ORDER DAY IS CELEBRATED

President Requests Retirement of Minister George Fred Williams.

PHILADELPHIA, July 4.—President Wilson has requested the resignation of George Fred Williams, American minister to Greece and Montenegro, as a result of Williams' public statements regarding the situation in Albania. This became known following the President's arrival here today.

Williams' own reports on his statements were taken up at the cabinet meeting yesterday and afterward Wilson decided their effect was such that it would be improper for Williams to longer represent the United States in the Balkans.

It has been understood that Williams, of his own accord, has forwarded his resignation, but so far as it has been learned here, it has not been received by the President.

The term of George Fred Williams as minister to Greece and Montenegro has been brief, but has attracted much attention. A few weeks ago President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and other officials were amazed by a published report that Williams had circulated the powers, offering his services as a mediator in the Albanian crisis.

RESIGNATION ON WAY?
State department officials then said the minister had no authority to do so, but had been given permission to visit Epirus and make a report on conditions. Secretary Bryan called for a report on the incident and Williams replied he was sending one by mail. While there is no confirmation of Williams' resignation, it is believed that the minister's resignation is accompanying that report.

The concern of administration officials was increased recently by publication of a further attack on the Albanian situation, on the part of the European powers, and the rule of Prince William, attributed to the minister.

EXPLOSION WRECKS BIG BUILDING

Tenement House Containing Many Families Blown Up

Two Women Among the Known Dead in Big Disaster

NEW YORK, July 4.—A bomb of terrific power exploded either on the roof or on one of the upper floors of a six-story flat house in Harlem today, wrecked a third of the building, killed at least three persons and injured others. One of the dead was Arthur Caron, a machinist and a leader of the Industrial Workers of the World. The other two known dead were women.

The explosion was at first attributed to dynamiting in a nearby subway excavation, and in the excitement attendant upon the collapse of the building estimates of the dead ran as high as fifty. Inspector Egan, chief of the bureau of inspectors, said the bomb was powerful enough to have wrecked the entire neighborhood if properly placed.

Persons across the street were blown from their beds, and window glass was shattered for blocks.

Whether any of the occupants of the buildings were buried in the ruins, it was at first impossible to determine. The police were inclined to believe, however, that three would cover the total dead.

Caron's body was identified by means of cards in his pockets. He lived in the building where the explosion occurred. Caron has been prominently identified with the I. W. W., and was arrested during one of the Union Square demonstrations. The police began looking up his record today, on the theory that it might aid in clearing up the explosion.

NOT TO DOCK HERE

Captain of Harvard Says That Schedule Prevents Landing on Oakland Side.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—When the steamship Harvard of the Pacific Navigation Company's line brings delegates from the southern part of the state to attend the Christian Endeavor convention in Oakland, scheduled for July 8 to 12, the steamer will not dock on the Oakland waterfront, according to a statement made today by Captain Bennett of the company.

Captain Bennett said today that he had not received any communication from the Oakland commercial bodies in regard to the matter, but that indirectly he had heard of the proposition with the offer of the Key Route Company to permit the ship to hang up at its wharves without charge.

"It would be impossible for us to grant such a request," said Captain Bennett. "The boat is scheduled to arrive at 10 o'clock in the morning, and as it leaves at 4 o'clock, it would not allow sufficient time for crossing to Oakland to discharge passengers and then to return to San Francisco for supplies and passengers for the south. The wharf accommodations would not be suitable, either. The vessel requires a slip, and under no consideration would the company consent to docking there."

"I understand that there are reservations being made by delegates to attend the convention. So far we have reserved accommodations for seventy or eighty people. How many more will apply I do not know."

Several days ago the Oakland commercial bodies started the movement to have the Harvard dock on the Oakland waterfront. It was believed that the delegates from the southern part of the state to attend the convention, and an effort was being made to have the big passenger steamer land on the Oakland side as one of the first vessels of its class to dock on the new waterfront.

Is Freedom's Natal Day.

One hundred and thirty eight years ago today the Continental Congress in session in Independence Hall in Philadelphia gave to the world a new charter of freedom, the salient parts of which are appended:

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of earth that separate and equal station to which the laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind require that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be SELF-EVIDENT: THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL; THAT THEY ARE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN INALIENABLE RIGHTS; THAT AMONG THESE ARE

LIBERTY; THAT TO SECURE THESE RIGHTS GOVERNMENTS ARE INSTITUTED AMONG MEN, DERIVING THEIR JUST POWERS FROM THE CONSENT OF THE GOVERNED.

Thomas Jefferson was the author of this declaration. Unwritten history says Thomas Paine, author of the "Rights of Man," "The Crisis" and other arguments favoring the liberty of the masses, aided him by suggestion, and there is little doubt of this, for Jefferson in a letter to Paine acknowledges having been materially assisted by the latter, and commends him for his work on behalf of republicanism. It made the entire world sit up and take notice. It sounded the death knell of the divine right of kings and placed in the hands of the populace the authority, maintaining the principle of Blackstone, who virtually declared that law, outside the natural, was that rule of society which so established for its own government.

By the "governed" is meant the majority and as a result the majority has governed, and so well that from thirteen colonies with about three millions of people, the United States of America has grown to forty-eight commonwealths, sovereign in character with respect to their local affairs, with territorial possessions in the great northwest, across the Pacific and in the West Indies.

Something like one year later the articles of confederation were entered into under which each state retained its sovereignty, freedom and independence, and every power, jurisdiction and right not expressly delegated to the United States. The States by the same agreement entered into a firm league of friendship with each other for common defense, the security of their liberties and their mutual and general welfare, binding themselves to assist each other against all force offered to, or attacks made on them, or any of them.

This compact was followed by the adoption in 1787 of the constitution which provided for representative government and under the provisions of which the Union has grown, prospered and become a world power, with commanding influence in every section of the globe.

It has prospered as no other country has ever prospered, partly through possibilities of nature and partly because its foundations were laid upon the solid rock of common sense and good business. It has contributed to the world's supply of money as has no other country since the time when Solomon worked the mines of Ophir. It has been earth's granary and meat market. It has been a home for the oppressed of all lands. The insignificant number of men and women who first settled the Atlantic Coast has expanded until now the sun never sets on the dominions of a free people. The last rays of the setting orb in Maine illuminate the islands off Alaska with the light of the morning; the scintillations of the Golden Gate at eventide are the harbinger of another day in the Philippines. It was Webster who said of England that the morning drum beat of England, following the sun in its course encircled this planet with one continuous strain of the martial airs of Great Britain. The same condition applies to the United States of America today.

All the grandeur of achievement noted has been accomplished as related under a representative form of government. Yet despite this it is noted there is an element which would change that system and would delegate to a minority the right to initiate and order laws.

On this Fourth of July, when we celebrate the birthday of the greatest nation of which history has kept a record, attention is called to another statement made by Jefferson in the charter of liberty adopted in Philadelphia. Following the assertion that "governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed" he said:

Whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. PRUDENCE, INDEED, WILL DICTATE THAT GOVERNMENTS LONG ESTABLISHED SHALL NOT BE CHANGED FOR LIGHT AND TRANSIENT CAUSES.

Reviewing the history of the nation, recalling the progress it has made through the peaceful policy of development and the harsh and stern measures of war; looking back over the record of its many and transcendent achievements wrought under the rules laid down by the fathers, does it not seem most appropriate and fitting that on this natal day of freedom, this anniversary of the birth of government of, for and by the people it is most proper and fitting that we should plead for a return to the simplicity of action that carried the flag through the storms of a thousand battles, enlarged the domain, peopled the desert places, opened the mines, caused the wheels of industry to turn, brought under benign influence the desolate peoples in the islands of the seas and made the Free and Independent States of which Jefferson spoke and for which Washington fought? That we shall set our faces against fads and freakish methods of legislation and demand more for the representative form given us by the founders?

Stanton Reed relates that "In the harbor shows, as in other places," large placards against an injunction law are being given prominence, which leads to the suspicion that the law is inclined to occasionally knock one over to get shaved.

Anna Held intimates that following her marriage to a Russian she will retire from the stage. That's where a scion of the house of Romanoff loses a meal ticket.

AN INSANE FOURTH

French People Are Marvelous.

France is an odd country in many respects as recent reports show. The people are impulsive and mercurial, although withal loyal. They are fond of pleasure and are somewhat promiscuous in habit, as may be noted.

As far back as 1867, when the city of Paris asked for a loan of many million francs for the first great exposition at a rate of 4 per cent, the streets were crowded from the banks back for blocks before daylight with people of the middle class, with little bags and sacks of money, eager to lend it to the government, and the loan was taken before thousands got a chance to put in a bid.

A short time since the press dispatches carried the information that another loan asked by the French government, which amounted into many millions, was oversubscribed fifteen times. Such a fact speaks volumes for the industry, economy, thrift and foresight of the people of France, and manifests an abiding faith in the stability of their government which is an essential element of true patriotism.

The very day that the industrious, sober, thrifty masses of the people were begging the privilege of lending their government their money, something like 40,000 of the people of the same nation crowded into a stadium or arena to see a negro and a white man fight a prize fight, or pretended prize fight. That the rabble of Paris, the ignorant and uneducated class, the tougher element, should have crowded to such a spectacle would not have been surprising; but the press reports showed the dukes, counts, princes, high financiers, the representatives of the highest social classes, made up in large part the great throng, and, amazing to Americans to state, many women of the highest ranks of Parisian society were the most conspicuous of the throng.

Evidently a people may be thrifty and patriotic, yet their perception of the properties, their capacity to distinguish between that which is refining and elevating and that which is brutal and degrading, may at the same time be atrophied.

If any woman in California, however great her wealth or high her social position, were to attend a prize fight, even between white men, she would be tabooed and socially ostracized, and if she were to attend such an exhibition between a negro and a white man, especially a negro under sentence in his own country for gross immorality, she would be socially doomed.

The explanation of the situation in France is that the "high-toned" people who went to see a brutal meeting between a white man and a negro were the idle rich, the non-producers, the parasites on the body social and economic. The self-respecting, hard-working, home-loving people of France, that class which in France as everywhere else is the hope of the nation, were but little represented at an exhibition which should not be permitted in any land. France is rich in money, but she is poor in the possession of her idle rich.

Dr. Eugene W. Dixon of Oklahoma City makes a report to the Kansas City police that his wife was robbed on a Frisco train of a diamond ring of considerable value. It appears that Mrs. Dixon, with a caution exemplary, put the ring on one of her toes before retiring, but while asleep let her tootsie protrude from the curtains with the result that some wicked person removed it. There isn't much of a moral to be derived from the relation of the circumstances except to relate that had Mrs. Dixon adhered to the words of the song, "Kings on her fingers, Dons on her toes," she might have lost a jingle instead of a solitaire.

President Wilson is to sit in the chair of John Hancock at Philadelphia's Fourth of July celebration today. He may fill it, but he will never be able to duplicate the signature old John appended to the declaration.

Twenty Years Ago Today

The special train from Oakland with the San Francisco militia on board, under the command of General Dickinson and Diamond, recruited by two companies from Stockton, arrived in Sacramento about 8:00 strong. The arrival of the men created frenzied excitement at the depot. Countless thousands who were present alternately cheered the troops and strikers.

"MAKING GOOD"

"Making good" is an expression which for some time has been used to denote success in "tackling a job."

There's a deeper significance hidden in that expression. Frequently young men, whose fund of experience is just being started in the bank of life, look upon success as the outcome of a series of fortunate "happenings." They are given to the hope that things "will break right" for them. They anticipate a sequence of fortuitous events that shall "happen" and lift them into coveted places.

In other words, they hope to "happen good." But they soon realize, after they have watched in vain for the proposition "happenings" of fate, that things are not as they "happen" but as they are "made."

Every event has its contributing causes. Atmospheric conditions contribute to cause lightning. Where it strikes is determined by contributing causes. Rivers and even oceans are the children of geologic reasons. So every event in a young man's life is brought to its being by something that caused it.

This being established, it is up to a young man to realize that his own powers must be employed with intelligence and definite purpose to "make" things "happen" beneficially for him. It is he would succeed well he must "make" well, or, to speak less grammatically but more eloquently, he must "make good." Mustn't he?—Post-Dispatch.

Peculiar and Pertinent

Temple imports into the United States fall from 135,000,000 pounds in 1902 to 4,500,000 pounds in 1912, while the quantity exported increased from 3,500,000 pounds in 1902 to 183,000,000 pounds in 1912.

FUR BEARERS ARE GIVEN PROTECTION

Regulations for Benefit of Big Industry Issued by Secretary Redfield.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—Regulations for the protection of fur-bearing animals in Alaska were promulgated today by Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce. They were issued in accordance with the act of Congress which gave the secretary authority to protect the seal fisheries of Alaska and become effective at once.

Under the new regulations the hunting or killing of sea otter is prohibited until November 1, 1920, and beaver until November 1, 1918. Closed seasons are also prescribed as follows:

On land otter and mink, from April 1 to November 15 of each year, on martens (American sable), from March 15 to November 15, on weasels (ermine), from March 15 to November 15, on muskrat, from June 1 to November 30, on lynx (wild cat), from March 1 to November 15 and on fox, from March 15 to November 15.

The killing of black bear, wolf, wolverine, squirrel and hare (rabbit) is permitted at all times, and land otter and mink may be taken alive for breeding purposes at any time except from April 1 to June 30 of each year. Marten can also be taken alive for breeding purposes except from March 15 to June 30 each year, and foxes except from March 15 to June 30.

Heavy penalties are provided for violation of the regulations.

Churches to Build Citizenship

A PLAN of publicity covering a period of one year for the purpose of making Oakland the most moral and clean city on the Pacific Coast

Q Oakland stands very close to the top of the list of cities in America that are rated as being among the clean and moral. Yet there is always room for improvement in the best of cities.

Q With that thought of improvement in mind, this plan of publicity has been inaugurated in Oakland. It is a plan first of all to increase the attendance, and, eventually, the membership in the churches in our cities.

THE REASON IS SIMPLE.

Q People do not stay away from church because they are opposed to religion or the church. Far from it. Nearly everybody concedes that the Christian Church is absolutely necessary to modern civilization. If the existence of the churches were threatened, the great mass of people would fight for them. By some current kink in the mental process of thousands of people, however, many non-church goers fail to perceive that if everybody else followed their example the churches would quickly pass out of existence. Every non-attendant upon religious services virtually votes for the elimination of all religious institutions from society.

Q If a person believes that the world needs the modern church, he has but one clear, unmistakable and unanswerable way of stating his position; that is, BY REGULAR CHURCH ATTENDANCE. The man who goes to church, stands for an indispensable institution, even as a good citizen stands for the state by voting. Of course, that is not the best reason for church attendance.

People go to church primarily to express their belief in God and to do Him reverence. The loftiest truth about man is that he is made in the image of the Divine and has a capacity for fellowship with the Infinite.

Q The world does not know much about creeds, but when it sees a person attending Divine worship, it understands that person to say by his action that he or she believes in God. Thoughtful persons stand for the church, because the church stands for the best things with which a community has to do.

Q The church-goers always will be found with the forces which make for righteousness. They are on the side of the people that want to live the noblest lives themselves and who are trying to help their fellow men to do the same.

Q The most efficient agency to human service on earth is the Christian Church. The churchman is a sharer in all the world-wide ministry of the organization. The people of California, and especially of the East Bay Cities, who would make their lives count should be counted among those upon whom some church may count.

WAR ON WILSON, ROOSEVELT'S PLAN

Resigns From Outlook to Start Opposition to Present Administration.

NEW YORK, July 4.—Theodore Roosevelt has resigned as contributor, editor of the Outlook, in order to devote all his time to a political warfare upon President Woodrow Wilson and his policies.
In a letter—almost sensational, given to the press last night, Colonel Roosevelt declared:
"I feel that as regards our international relations the policy of the present administration has meant the abandonment of the interest and honor of America."
His legislative and industrial program has brought about grave industrial depression and suffering to business men, farmer and wage-earner alike, though perhaps most of all the wage-earner.
The resignation Mr. Roosevelt said, was due to his determination to devote every moment of his time in the immediate future to a personally conducted fight upon the Wilson policies of national government. In addition to his anti-Wilson campaign, Colonel Wilson says he will continue with unabated vigor his battle upon "such political issues as William"

Colonel Roosevelt's letter, dated Sacramento Hill, June 29, says:
"If I had been able to be, as I expected to be, a man entirely removed from all participation in active politics, nothing would give me keener pleasure than to keep on in the future exactly as in the past. But the developments of the last three or four years have rendered it imperative that I take a more or less active part in trying to secure for this country the principles embodied in the Progressive platform of 1912—I now feel that I am in honor bound to stand in strong opposition to the administration."

"I feel that as regards our international relations the policy of the present administration has meant the abandonment of the interest and honor of America. Its legislative and industrial program has brought about grave industrial depression and suffering to business men, farmer and wage-earner alike, though perhaps most of all the wage-earner. Having to do all this political work, it has become impossible for me to give the Outlook as much of my attention as I desire. Accordingly, with the deepest regret, I hereby resign from that position. If you care to have me do so, I shall be glad to continue as a special contributor to the Outlook, giving you during the coming year a series of articles on social and industrial subjects of current interest."
Dr. Abbott said in his reply:
"With undiminished affection for you, with undiminished loyalty to the principles for which you stand, I recognize with you the necessity for your action."

BATTLESHIP OREGON'S VETERANS HOLD BANQUET

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—The veterans of the battleship Oregon who served in the Spanish War—the members of the crew which carried the "Bulldog of the Navy" in its world-famous sixty-eight-day 'trip from this city around the Horn in time to participate in the final naval engagement of the war—gathered around the banquet board last night at a downtown cafe in this city to celebrate the anniversary of the battle of Santiago de Cuba.
Besides the reunion, the veterans discussed the plans now being formulated with the Exposition management to send the Oregon through the Panama Canal at the head of the battleship parade.
The old fighting ship is now being fitted up at the Bremerton Navy Yard for this, its last notable voyage. According to present plans, President Wilson, with Admiral Clark, will be on the bridge when the old warship makes its trip through the canal.
The Oregon was put into commission on July 16, 1896. Two years later, on March 19, 1898, it started on its swift run around the Horn for Cuba, arriving on May 26, in time to participate in the big battle which destroyed the flower of the Spanish fleet. When it made its trip, it was just over two months of its complement, having 34 men in the crew. Most of the men and officers were killed. The officers of the unique association include A. A. Zellmer, president, formerly ship's painter, Adam Gill, vice president, formerly second-class fireman, and M. O. Huber, secretary, formerly chief yeoman.

FISCAL YEAR OPENS WITH GOOD OMEN

Sentiment Encouraging, But No Increase of Business, Report.

NEW YORK, July 4.—The new fiscal year opened with sentiment somewhat encouraging but with no appreciable increase of business. Financial circles found considerable comfort in the conference between President Wilson and the representative of an important banking interest, coupled, as it was, with the belief that it presages a closer understanding between the administration and the big business of the country.
There were a few faint echoes of the Claffin failure, but that disaster is believed not to extend beyond the interests directly concerned. In fact, signs of a reawakening of general mercantile business are seen in various sections of the country, especially in the West and Southwest. The large distribution of interest and dividend payments was followed by some activity in bonds, but investors were still indisposed to follow this movement into the stock list. Delay in the freight rate case continued to act as a strong deterrent factor, which even the more alluring crop prospects could not overcome.
A number of adverse railway statements were submitted during the week, that of the New York Central system being particularly unfavorable. Receipts for the week ending at Hamilton and Dayton railroad was foreboded and received with the hope that it may work to the advantage of the Baltimore and Ohio road.
It is expected that the next few weeks will bring an increased demand for funds in connection with

The Meddler

THE summer vacation days touch the highest levels in the Fourth of July holidays. It is then that the cities are deserted; everyone tries to be away, if only for a few days. Country homes are all opened; every house who can do so entertains, and their houses are full to overflowing. Guest tents are now very much the order of the hour, and guests prefer them to the more formal rooms of a home. And this tertaining many people, and tents delightfully appointed usually shelter many guests in midsummer days. Tent life is very picturesque and more in accord with the out-of-door life so rapidly becoming characteristic of the California summer time. At all the leading mountain and seaside resorts there are days full of many activities.

The season is fairly on at Del Monte, and, of course, the Fourth of July golf tournament is the great attraction. Jack Neville, who has just won out again at Seattle, is at Del Monte, and Mr. and Mrs. William Pierce Johnson went there this week. With their daughter, Miss Josephine Johnson, they have been guests of friends at Brookdale, but they usually spend the Fourth of July holidays at Del Monte. Miss Johnson is out every day on the links, and her friends are expecting a good score in the tournament now on at this fashionable resort.

Mr. and Mrs. George McNear are chaperoning a party of young people at Del Monte, among whom are their pretty daughter, Miss Ernestine McNear, and her fiancé, George Nickol. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ford are there, also, Mrs. Ford, who was charming Miss Marian Miller, being one of the most attractive of the younger matrons. She is very stunning, indeed, with lovely coloring, and so sweet and sincere that she is most popular. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butters motored to Del Monte on Friday with their niece, Miss Lois Crosby.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Capwell are among the well-known Oakland people who are at Del Monte for the Fourth of July holidays. They have with them their daughters, the Misses Dorothy and Phyllis Capwell, two of the prettiest and most popular girls to be found anywhere.

Among others at Del Monte for this week-end are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Sullivan (Gladys Wilson), Mrs. J. R. Laine, Mrs. Otilia Laine, Miss Katherine Redding and Miss Meetha McMahon.

Not far from Del Monte is Carmel-by-the-Sea with its famous Forest theater. For the July holiday this year the Carmel players are to present "Sons of Spain," by Sydney Coe Howard. He is a young dramatist and is the son of Mrs. and the late John L. Howard. The drama is said to be full of striking scenes. The play is based on the lawlessness of Governor Potos of Monterey, his treatment of the Indians under him, and the final settlement of it all by the faithful Father Serra.

F. E. Lloyd, professor of botany at Stanford, will take the part of Serra, and in the cast will be such well-known people as Mrs. James Hopper and Mrs. Harry Leon Wilson.

Carmel is showing a great holiday spirit and the little town by the sea is crowded with visitors. Tahoe Tavern is arranging for its sports tournament, for which many prizes will be offered. Mrs. Charles Stark Towne (Arlene Johnson) was formerly one of the most expert women bowlers at Tahoe, and Miss Elva Schilling also made a very good score. At Tahoe this season there are to be tennis matches, swimming matches and bowling contests. The Misses Elva and Cora de Pue are expert bowlers, and Miss Marian Newhall is one of the best swimmers of the smart set. She is a good tennis player as well. Among the best swimmers on this side of the bay is Miss Marjorie Moon, who will also be at Tahoe this summer.

Mark L. Requa is away on a business trip, and Mrs. Mark Requa and her children left for Lake Tahoe last evening.

Mrs. Frederick Kohl is at Tahoe, and she has been very busy getting her summer home in readiness for the many guests of the year. The Kohls have their own yacht on the lake and there are many expeditions to nearby resorts. The Kohls have as their guests for the Fourth of July holidays Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dismore and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rathbone.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Y. Campbell (Elizabeth Watt) motored to Tahoe this week and will remain there for a few days. Among others who will motor to the lake in the near future are Mr. and Mrs. George Pope, Miss Emily Pope and the two boys of the family. They will remain in the Sierras until some time in August.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cavalier (Camille Adams) have motored to Tahoe with a party of friends and will spend some time at the lake. Mrs. Cavalier is a very beautiful brunette, a bride of last year. She is a most attractive young matron and very charming, indeed, to her young girl friends.

summer holidays of well-known people. Mrs. McNear is with her daughter, Mrs. Hutchins, in St. Petersburg, where they spent a delightful spring. Americans are very popular in the Russian capital and they are invited to many of the court affairs. One hears French spoken a great deal at these gatherings of the aristocracy, but the Russians speak so many languages that it is very embarrassing for an American, who usually speaks only his own language. The Hutchins are to leave St. Petersburg this summer and their home will be established in London.

The William Crocker have greatly enjoyed the season in London, and they are planning to sail for home in August. They will remain some weeks in New York before coming to California.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Green-merly Miss Agnes Tillmann, will sail July 11 on the Olympic and will spend two months abroad. They are to return to America in September. At the recent wedding of Baron Von Eck and Miss Tillmann one of the most attractive bridesmaids was Miss Ernestine McNear of this city.

On the Olympic of that date also will sail Mr. and Mrs. Francis Carlan. They will go directly to Paris, where they have a delightful apartment with the patriotic name of "Etats Unis." Before they return to America the Carlans will visit

Mrs. Louis Cockcroft recently returned from the East, having been away a month. The trip East was made that Mrs. Cockcroft might accompany her daughter, Charlotte, to New York, where the latter took a steamer to England. Miss Cockcroft has joined Mrs. Vernon Waldron and her daughter, Miss Marjory Waldron, who are to spend six months longer in Europe. They will stay some weeks in the Alps and then go on to Paris, and later they will visit other great cities of Europe.

The girls come from some of our best-known families, and their courage and endurance are marvelous, and they mark the California girl as expressing the finest type of womanhood the world knows today. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Colby (Rachel Vrooman) have always been leaders known young people around the bay never fail to accompany the Sierra Club each summer. They have gone by train into the heart of the Sierras, and then have climbed to glorious heights, following trails never before attempted by any but Indians or guides.

The Sierra Club has spent the most wonderful mountain climbing club in the world, and its expedition this year into the Yosemite country bids fair to be the most interesting in its eventful history. One is proud of it because women show such fearlessness, such courage and endurance.

The Sierra Bulletin sends out a very fine description of one of the last outings of the Sierra Club, showing the scope of its activities. The description is by Miss Lena Martha Redington, the daughter of Mr. and scription of the great gorge, and the steep climb, and then one reads:

"The camp stretched along the river bank was as busy at certain hours of the day as the sacred banks of the Ganges. Washing, pulling up water in buckets and other house-keeping duties here went merrily on; fishing and afternoon tea parties were held, and last, but not least, every afternoon the famous swimming parties at the big rock."

The endurance of the California woman is well expressed in the following paragraph:

"The climb out up the Copper Creek Granite Basin trail—a rise of 6000 feet—had been described as something to be dreaded, but like all zigzagging, it was more monotonous than difficult. However, no climb can be very monotonous which unfolds such admirable views of distant valleys and peaks."

The next day the party descended over 5000 feet in elevation to Simpson Meadows, where a camp was established for eleven days. One of the most wonderful natural gardens in the Sierra is in Simpson Meadows, where the middle fork of the great King's river rushes by. In the open fern braes are mingled with a luxuriant growth of flowers, whose fragrance greets one in advance. Ladies' tresses, elephants' heads, tiger lilies, larkspur, wild roses, wood violets, all these most delicate flowers are there, either mixed with ferns or alone in beds by themselves.

There are some sentences which all travelers who have spent days and nights in the Sierras will be moved to read more than once.

Miss Redington writes:

"To me there has always been something surpassingly precious about the first two or three nights in the mountains. Just as the poet used to comfort his fretful child by taking him to see the stars, so are we, children of this busy world, comforted by the lustre of these clear Sierran nights."

And later, she reads: "And now there often comes a longing to return to those pleasant spots—a longing which brings with it memories that are as refreshing as a cool, fragrant breeze from far-away mountain summits."

are occupying an apartment at The Highlands, in Park View Terrace.

Miss Florence Sloper is one of the accomplished belles of society. She is a clever musician, and like her intimate friend, Miss Adele Scott, is a very beautiful dancer. Miss Sloper is spending the summer with friends at Aetna Springs.

Mrs. Claude Kelfer was formerly Miss Margaret Dewing. The Dewing-Kelfer wedding was a pretty affair of June at the Church of the Advent. Mr. and Mrs. Kelfer will return from their honeymoon next week, when they will take possession of an attractive new home in Fourth Avenue Heights.

Mrs. Clarence Woodbury, who was formerly Miss Ethel Moore of Piedmont, has been visiting her parents for several weeks, but left this week for Ontario, Canada, to join Mr. Woodbury and establish their home there. They have lived in Los Angeles since their marriage. Mrs. Charles Woodbury accompanied her East and will be the guest of her son and daughter-in-law during the summer.

AS TO AUCTION BRIDGE AND SOME PLAYERS.

There are some women who go to Tahoe every year because bridge is played there, and because there are always good players to be found there. The same is true of Del Monte, whose card-room is well filled with players, and every evening one finds there expert auction players, playing the game along the latest

But woe to the Californian who tackles the game of auction with an Eastern player or one from England. The latter simply walks away with the score and with the prizes, if there are any. And all because the good player has learned "nullo," and because our Californians have been so slow to adopt the innovation.

expert writes: "What we resist today we accept tomorrow; we grow accustomed to it the next day, and in an incredibly short time we look back aghast at what once satisfied us. This is the history of all progress. Were all the world standpatters, we should still be using in some corners, and by the light of tallow-dips or pine-knots and heating our houses with a few huge open fireplaces.

"Whist lovers simply shuddered at bridge. The game was 'ruined.' Bridge devotees went into fits at the mention of auction; they didn't want to spoil bridge." The new count was held at arm's length; I met with nothing but rebuffs for months after I prayed New York to accept it. Who plays the old count now? Who wants to? And, for the past year, nullo has been taking their turn at the hands of those who fight every step toward progress. But they are here. No one who really understands nullo will ever give them up.

"Nullo is ruinous when they are badly played and badly bid. And every one plays and bids them badly at first."

There is a big feeling against honors in the East because they make for luck alone. Without honors people would be forced to work for their game and to play it simply on the lines of skill. And so, sometime down the future honors are to go. That is "on the cards." The same expert writes.

"I should be very sorry to part with honors. They have always existed, and, as far as my feelings go, I fear I am a sad 'standpatter.' But my reason shows me how tremendously the game that I love is benefited by each step away from luck and toward skill. I have allied myself firmly with the pro-skill, anti-luck movements, and I can see the tremendous fairness in the arguments against honors.

"Points and penalties (and the rubber-value, because it is achieved by points and by hard work) are really the only things that should count."

Appropos of cards at the summer resorts are to be seen "the votes for women" playing cards. All the society leaders in the East and West are now using them, and they are altogether the most popular thing the women have brought out this year. Then playing cards have the suffrage slogan on the back and are in the

In California one takes the Sierra Club quite as a matter of course, but in other parts of the world its achievements are regarded as extraordinary and it has a world-wide fame. Mountain climbing is considered to be not only one of the wonderful but one of the most difficult sports of the day. Long articles are written concerning mountain climbing in the Swiss Alps and in the national suffrage color yellow, with black and white. They are good cards, sell for 25 cents a pack and $2 a dozen, and are altogether the suffragists' "best sellers." A good suffragist will hardly play bridge without her own cards. A popular use is to give a card party and present every guest a pack of Votes for Women cards to take home.

We have those same votes safely landed in California, but the Easterners ask us to use their cards, as they derive profit from them.

They also ask us to buy a pretty fine china with gold decoration bearing the motto "Votes for Women," and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont asks us also to buy her china-ware which is cheaper, and has the same slogan in blue. She sells dozens of little cream jugs, which make attractive souvenirs for 25 cents apiece, at the suffrage shop connected with her lunch room. The Eastern women are going to ask us to use also some of their note paper, yellow bordered and lettered, and they are beginning now to get ready their calendars for next year. The Duchess of Marlborough is now with her mother, Mrs. Belmont at Marble House, Newport, and under their leadership many new schemes among the suffrage women of the smart set will be developed this summer.

LAWN TENNIS COMES IN FOR REVIVAL

Among the smart sets all over the country there is great revival in the game of lawn tennis. The game is exceedingly popular in England, and the Princess Mary is now taking lessons. Many new courts have been laid down in England this year, and the parks also have their courts. King George plays fairly well, and Queen Mary lends to the game all the support she can. California came royally to the fore when Maurice McLoughlin won the championship in England, and they are preparing a great reception at Palo Alto for Lindley Murray, who recently won the championship in the East. The Oakland smart set has always taken a great deal of interest in tennis, and many well-known people play extremely well. Among the most expert tennis players of a few seasons ago were Mrs. Herbert Lee, (Ethel Bates), and Mrs. Joseph Chanslor, (Hattie Kimble).

Almost every day well known people are practicing on the tennis courts of the Claremont Country Club, and one hears that there has been a great revival in tennis playing at Berkeley. Meanwhile there is a great feud raging in England between the tennis players and the golfers. The tennis man has recently been heard to say "Golf is no game." Whereupon every one has rushed to the dictionary for a very definite understanding of the word "game." And golf is now allowed to be "a pastime." And the tennis man's worst regret is that the landscape is spoiled by a fussy little club house—and that the spring stillness is broken by the cries of "Fore" and the crack of the ball. But the golfer only looks superior, and takes his way on the links.

One hears that Sequoyah Club is making famous progress, and that the finest links in the country will certainly be developed out on our foothills.

The young man in charge of the affairs of this new club have shown wonderful financial ability as well as great tact in formulating the membership. They have now one of the strongest clubs in the country, and one hears that among the members will be found many exceedingly fine golf players.

YOUNGER SET INCLUDED IN JULY HOLIDAY PLANS.

Many of our young people are included in the many house parties planned for through Fourth of July holidays, and one finds most interesting gatherings in the Santa Cruz mountains. Among the homes at Brookdale opened this year are those of the Arthur Breeds, the H. C. Capwell, the William Wright, the Guy C. Earls, and that of Mrs. Arthur L. Adams. All have friends visiting them for the week end.

At Boulder Creek Mrs. Edward Engle, Mrs. John Smith, and Mrs. Alexander Marx, all have week-end guests, and at Felton, Mrs. Samuel Hall is entertaining the members of her immediate family.

partly in their camp on the Russian river and among their guests are bright Elsie Posey and clever Helen Hinkley. Other guests for the Fourth of July holidays will be Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fennimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jones have an attractive cottage on the Russian river in which they are entertaining friends, and the William Morrisons will have with them in Bolinas their mother, Mrs. Isaac Hyde.

SUMMER PLANS KEEP SOCIETY FOLKS BUSY.

One hears of summer plans on all sides, and jolly vacation days seem to be a waiting many people. Mrs. Requa, Mrs. Oscar Long and the Misses Long will leave for Miramar on the seventh, and will spend a month in delightful Santa Barbara. Mrs. J. Walter Scott, and her bright young daughter, Miss Adele Scott returned recently from a trip to the North. They went to Seattle to attend the graduation of one of Miss Scott's young girl friends, and they were extensively entertained there. They spent delightful days in Portland, and other northern cities, in each one of which there were friends to make their stay a pleasant one.

The Scotts are preparing to estab-

Chico. She is entertaining a house party for the Fourth of July holidays, her guests being young friends of her son, Tom Henshaw.

MISS CARMEN GHIRARDELLI IS BRILLIANT HOSTESS.

Two teas of the week have interested the young people—a large one having been given across the bay by Miss Leelle Miller. Among the guests were Miss McNear, Miss Elinor McNear, Mrs. Bernard Ford, and Miss Elsie Detrick.

Miss Carmen Ghirardelli entertained at the home of Miss Florence Orr, who is to be married next week to Virgil Jorgenson, Miss Ghirardelli's cousin.

The guests made a very attractive bevy of young girls, and among those whose gowns were specially effective were: Miss Lilla Lovell, Miss Hazel Ingalls, Miss Helen Daoney, Miss Anne Barbour, and Miss Helen Coogan. The engaged girls at the tea were Miss Marjorie Emmons and Miss Gertrude Adams. Among the river, and among her guests for the Fourth of July holidays are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark of New York, and their daughter, Miss Helen Clark. The Thomas Williams have also opened their country place, "Fortune Teller Camp" on the McCloud river, and as usual, Mrs. Williams has many guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Gallagher will not visit California this year as they had planned to do. They will spend the summer at one of the resorts in the mountains near Pekin, where the English residents of Shanghai go to escape the intense heat. The Gallagher have a lovely home in Shanghai, in which Americans always find a very warm welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moller have returned from Europe, where they spent six months in travel. They were accompanied by their daughters, the Misses Mabel and Josephine Moller, and their trip abroad was a very extended one. In New York they were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Gilbreth, (Lillian Moller).

SOCIETY

The Fourth of July at Del Monte is unusually gay this year. Following the Country Club story, including William Pierce Johnson, George Nickel, George McNear Jr., J. Brendon Brady, F. O. Johnson, William Wayman, Warren Gregory, and among others, Everett Bee, Albert Bettins, R. F. Tisdale, Clinton La Montagne, Bruce Heathcote, Edmunds Lyman, Ward Barron, and E. P. Lyon.

Prominent among the guests at Del Monte are Mr. and Mrs. Harris Cebert Capwell and their party, who motored over from Brookdale. With them are Miss Phyllis and Miss Dorothy Capwell, Miss Carmen Ghirardelli and Miss Lilla Lovell.

Mr. and Mrs. George McNear Jr. have Miss Ernestine McNear, George Nickel and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ford in their party. Other visitors are Captain and Mrs. J. F. Cyster, Miss Elizabeth Oyster, Miss Emmeline Tobbs, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. De Laveaga, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Cock, and Captain and Mrs. William Watson with a party of friends.

At Carmel, where Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alston Williams have a house party of friends of Miss Corona and Miss Florence Williams there will be two plays given in the open air theater. One of them, "The Song of Spain," presented this afternoon, was staged by Porter Garrett of Berkeley.

Professor and Mrs. E. E. and Miss El-Hor Boker are entertaining guests at Carmel.

Mrs. Isabel Poney and Mademoiselle Pettit of Junc de Paris are enjoying the holidays in Monterey, where Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Crosby have a jolly house party.

GUEST OF MISS EMMONS.
Miss Anna Counties, the attractive Chicago girl who has been visiting Miss Lois Beckwith at her home in Telegraph avenue, is at present the guest of Miss Margaret Emmons in Alameda. With her father she will leave tomorrow for her home in the East. Miss Emmons entertained informally at tea a few afternoons ago for Miss Counties.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.
An interesting engagement has been announced, that of Miss Frances Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barrett, to Chester Arthur Kelly, son of Mrs. M. J. Kelly of San Francisco. Miss Barrett is a very attractive girl who was educated at the Convent of the Holy Names.

Orient will arrive tomorrow on the Manchuria from Yokohama. They have been visiting several of the famous mountain resorts of Japan in the past month, after interesting visits to China and Java. The trip is taken for the benefit of Mr. Bachelier's health and it will be pleasant news to their friends that he is quite well again after the long sea voyages.

Mr. and Mrs. Bachelier will go to Los Angeles this month to visit Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Glover Downey (Lorette Mautais), the former of whom is Mrs. Bachelier's brother.

AT THE ST. FRANCIS.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis McDermot who returned last week from the East are occupying their apartments at the St. Francis where Mrs. Arthur Goodfellow has been their guest. Mr. and Mrs. Goodfellow are at present at Del Monte where the latter will remain a month. Mr. and Mrs. McDermot will also be among the visitors at Del Monte this month.

lish again this season their wonderful camp on the Russian river. It is one of the historic camps of that famous redwood region, and "Eagle's Nest" has long been noted for its true hospitality.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stolp and Miss Carmen Stolp are spending the week end with Mrs. Stolp's mother, Mrs. Harlan, in the San Ramon valley. Next week they are going to Yosemite and will spend some weeks at Camp Ahwahnee.

Mrs. Newton Koser and her children are to spend a month in Mendocino county, and among her week-end guests will be her sister Mrs. Roy McCabe.

Mrs. Edward Henshaw is spending part of the summer on her ranch at attractive guests were also Mrs. Beach Soule and Mrs. Harold Havens.

THERE'S MUCH TO READ IN NATURE'S BOOK

In these days—marking the heart of the mid-summer time—almost all families have plans for the holiday time which means vacation. For some there are simple plans for only a few days, for others are to come longer and more extended trips. But all may try to find as wise old Shakespeare told us to do as long as we breathe.

sermons in stones, and good in everything."

MRS. HEARST OPENS HER COUNTRY HOME.
Mrs. Hearst has opened her country home "Wyatoot" on the McCloud and has a host of friends on both sides of the bay who will entertain in her honor. Many complimentary affairs are being planned for the popular bride-elect. Mr. Kelly is a graduate of St. Ignace and Santa Clara colleges, and has taken a conspicuous part in musical affairs, both as soloist and leader.

Plans for the wedding are not definitely settled, but it will probably be a church event in the early fall.

ARMY WOMEN TO VOTE.

Army women at the various posts about the bay are to be organized into a Republican Club with Mrs. William Lavelle, wife of Colonel Lavelle of the Presidio as the leading spirit. At Mrs. Lavelle's invitation the wives of officers stationed at the Presidio, Fort Miles, Fort Baker, Alcatraz and Fort McDowell, Angel Island, will meet for luncheon at Fort Baker next week. They will go to visit Fort McDowell before returning to their homes. The club will be an innovation in army circles as officers do not vote, and heretofore their wives and daughters have also been denied the privilege.

RETURN FROM ORIENT.

touring car on a motor trip to Tahoe. They will spend several weeks at Tallac and plan to take a number of short trips in the picturesque mountain country. The return journey will be made by way of Carson City and Reno. In the party will be Mrs. A. L. Trick, Mrs. J. A. Honnihan, Mrs. Robert Berwin, and Mrs. William Mason.

VISITING THE BECKWITHS.
Mr. and Mrs. John Beckwith are entertaining as their home guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bush and Miss Margaret Bush of Chicago who formerly made their home in Oakland. Mr. Bush is a prominent railroad official of Chicago. Mrs. Beckwith has been entertaining informally for Miss Bush who has many friends in the younger set of Oakland.

ENTERTAIN HOUSE PARTY.
Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Farnham are among those entertaining house parties at Brookdale where Miss Elsie Clifford is their guest for the summer. Later in the season Mrs. George Porter, Baldwin and Miss Albert Edger will be entertained at the Farnham's attractive place.

MOTOR TO LOS ANGELES.
Miss Matilda E. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hardin are accompanying Judge Everett Brown on a motor trip to Los Angeles. They will be absent several weeks.

MOTOR TOUR OF NORTH.
Mrs. Henry Rosenfeld, Mrs. J. A. Black and Mrs. C. K. Nicholas-Torres a motor party that enjoyed a delightful tour of Northern California. They went as far north as Klamath and spent several days at Shasta Springs en route.

LEAVE FOR LAKE TAHOE.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Chadbourne with Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Alexander of San Mateo as their guests, left this morning for Lake Tahoe in their touring car. They will be guests at the Pavilion for several days and expect to be absent a week.

PROGRESSIVE HOUSE PARTY.

A number of the younger set in San Francisco have arranged a progressive house party that will be entertained first at the home of Mrs. Wheeler place, and then at the home of Mrs. Wheeler place.

from July 3 to July 17. For the next few days they will be guests of Judge and Mrs. William Carey Van Fleet at invitation, and on the 11th will go to Cloverdale to visit Mrs. Henry Crocker at the beautiful Crocker place where they will remain until the 15th. The Wheelers will then return to their town house to prepare for the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Wheeler and Bradley Head on the 18th, and the other members of the jolly party will gather in San Francisco later for the wedding.

GIRL ATHLETE KNOCKS OUT STEWARD ON LINER

NEW YORK, July 4.—Miss Dorothy Eaton of San Francisco, 18 years old, who will enter Leland Stanford Jr. University this year, arrived here Thursday night from Argentina on the Lamport & Holt liner Vauban with a boxing record that will stand for some time.

On the $554-mile run from Buenos Ayres she knocked out A. B. Stiles, the gymnasium steward, who had taken great pride in his prowess in the ring.

Miss Eaton, who has three medals for swimming on the Pacific Coast, had been in Argentina to spend a vacation with friends, the Misses Margaret and Isora Collins and Miss Mary O. Morse, who accompanied her here and will journey with her to her home in California.

Miss Eaton's splendid swimming feats in the deck tank of the Vauban. Miss Eaton was not at all daunted to learn that gossip had spread the news of her friendly encounter with Stiles.

Miss Eaton has been attending a preparatory school at Palo Alto, Cal., and will enter Stanford this year. She has had a record for athletics since she was 10 years old.

IMPROVEMENT AIM OF NEW ORGANIZATION

Longfellow Improvement Association was organized last Tuesday by residents of the section bounded by Fenieth, Thirty-second and West streets and Telegraph avenue for the general betterment of the section.

The association was named after the Longfellow school. C. A. Murphy was chosen president and F. D. Baker secretary, 719 Thirty-seventh street.

The next meeting will be held at 3647 Grove street next Tuesday evening. The public is invited to attend.

MARRIED CONGRESSMEN PAY THEIR INCOME TAX

WASHINGTON, July 4.—Married members of Congress today paid their income tax assessments for the first time since passage of the law. Unmarried Congressmen had the tax sliced from their pay checks on May 4. The reason Congressmen have not been assessed for the tax before was that a treasury department ruling set today as the day.

MAX POPPER BEQUEATHS TO ORPHAN ASYLUMS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—The will of the late Max Popper, well known politician and president of the Ironclad Club, was filed for probate yesterday by the executor of the $25,000 estate.

Popper bequeaths $1,000 each to the Protestant, Catholic and Hebrew Orphan asylums of this city. The remainder is to be divided equally between his sister, Mrs. Emma Everett of Nice, France, and Mrs. Felix Hadley of Conway, North Wales. Popper requests that his body be cremated.

Y. M. C. A. BOYS BACK FROM YOSEMITE CAMP

Surrounded and in the pink of condition, the Oakland Y. M. C. A. boys returned from a week's vacation at Yosemite. The party was under the leadership of T. A. Caldwell and physical instructor T. J. Martin, assisted by a corps of fifteen leaders. Fishing, boating, hiking and swimming and all kinds of sports gave the boys the best time of their lives.

LONDON, July 4.—While a number of the most beautiful and distinguished young women in English society looked on helplessly and heard his cries for help, young Sir Denis Anson, who came into his title only a month ago, was drowned in the Thames in the heart of London early yesterday morning. With his life he lost a wager that he would swim the Thames.

With the young baronet, William Mitchell, a musician, who made a gallant attempt at rescue, also perished. Countess Constantine Benckendorff was almost drowned in a similar attempt. While Sir Denis Anson was drowning and his cries were mingled with the cries of Count Benckendorff, Countess Natalie and Lady Diana Manners, the Countess Jaquett and Mrs. Raymond Aquith, in opera cloaks and jewels, and evening gowns, stood upon the deck of a steam yacht in the river peering out into the darkness screaming for help. They could hear the cries of the young baronet and the musician who had gone to his rescue until the water closed over them.

The tragedy ended an escapade that followed a night at the opera and was undertaken in an attempt to escape the intense heat wave which struck London this week.

SISTER'S OBJECTION TO WEDDING FUTILE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—Twice foiled within a week in a persistent effort to present two of her six sisters from being married, Miss Margarita Noe tomorrow will find herself sole maiden survivor of the name of her distinguished ancestor, one of the leading families of the Mission Dolores and prominent in the early history of California.

Tomorrow morning her sister, Mercedes Noe, is to become the bride of Marcellus W. Lavender, a young business man of San Jose. The ceremony, which Margarita Noe has been endeavoring to defer, will take place at the family home, 1533 Octavia street.

The marriage follows by a week a similar event in the Noe family in which a pretty bride was Miss Constance Noe, who became the wife of Lamar C. Sheffield, a prominent young lawyer of Atlanta, Ga.

"My strenuous objections to my younger sisters marrying was a sentimental one," explained Margarita Noe yesterday. "With the marriage of Mercedes I will be practically alone, the last of the Noes."

GRANDMOTHER FACES FORGERY CHARGE

HANFORD, July 4.—Mrs. Laura P. Bradford, aged 42, wife of H. F. Bradford, mother of five, and a grandmother, was arrested Thursday north of Lemoore and positively identified as a forger, whose operations have extended over a three-year period, and whose identity has baffled the police of three counties.

Mrs. Bradford made a complete confession to Sheriff Lyman D. Farmer of Kings county, who effected the capture.

In the winter of 1912 Mrs. Bradford first began a career of crime, and found it so easy to negotiate checks that she has been placing them with complete success, numbering among her dupes some of the best bankers and most conservative business firms of Fresno, Kings and Tulare counties.

AUTO WRECK REVEALS DOMESTIC TROUBLE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—An automobile accident at Menlo Park Monday night has been the means of revealing the fact that A. J. Coffee, well known man about town, has been estranged from his wife for weeks.

The accident itself may result in divorce proceedings being filed.

Coffee is representative of a fire alarm system with offices in the Postal Telegraph building. The Coffees have been living at the Hotel Oxford.

On reading the account of the accident, Mrs. Coffee's friends reacted to the building point, principally because her daughter's name was brought in as being one of the occupants of the car. Mrs. Coffee herself was mentioned as another occupant.

Mrs. Coffee and her daughter were at home when the smash occurred.

Coffee and two women were returning from Santa Cruz and the auto ran into a telephone pole. Coffee's left arm was hurt and one of the women was cut by flying glass.

BETROTHAL KEPT SECRET, WEDDING TAKES PLACE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—On the way to Honolulu for their honeymoon, Hal Maurer and his bride, of Los Angeles, are at the St. Francis Hotel. Well known as they were in social circles in the northwestern city, their engagement had been a matter of widespread interest had it ever occurred; but it did not.

Mrs. Maurer was Miss Gladys Hanst, of Los Angeles. Several months ago, while she and her mother, Mrs. J. G. Hanst, were making an extended stay in Rome, she met a little Italian woman who was a maid in the hotel.

The engagement being announced abroad and at home. With the date of the wedding set, Miss Hanst's troupe was prepared and cards were out. That was as far as proceedings went. Through the influence of titled relatives of Miss Hanst's fiancé, the engagement was broken. After visiting other capitals of Europe, Miss Hanst returned to Los Angeles, a spinster still, and prejudiced against engagements.

When, therefore, Hal Maurer, a man well known in sporting and club circles in Los Angeles, finding her favor, whispered the tender secret which she had already guessed, Miss Hanst told him she might marry him some day, but would refuse absolutely to become engaged.

Maurer, who had been thinking of the "joshing" he would get from fellow members of the Los Angeles Athletic Club on the announcement of his engagement, was just as well pleased. So matters drifted on, and it became understood between the pair that they would be married some time in June. Business affairs of the William H. Slaus company, with which Maurer is connected, deferred the possibility of departure from Los Angeles, and therefore the marriage. With trials finally settled, the wedding took place Thursday, and the couple left at once for San Francisco. They will sail on the Sonoma Tuesday for Hawaii.

$50,000 CHECK REPAYS A LOAN OF $50

NEWBURGH, N. Y., July 4.—Attorney William J. Wygant yesterday placed in the hands of Mrs. Mary E. Kampe, the widow of Joseph Kampe, a check drawn by John Patton for $50,000. Forty years ago Mrs. Kampe lent the young man $50 with which to go west. When he left he said some day he would repay a thousand for one.

She never heard from him until a month ago, when a letter came to this city addressed to Mrs. Kampe and asking the name of her attorney, recalled the incident and saying that he intended to be as good as his word, for fortune had smiled on him. Mrs. Kampe will not tell his address, nor will the attorney.

COWGIRL LEADS IN BREAK FROM SCHOOL

SALEM, Ore., July 4.—Her adventurous spirit unbroken by confinement in the State Industrial School for Girls here, Ethel Smith, Portland's famous cowgirl, known throughout the city as the "Wild West Girl," last night led a break from that school, and she and her three girl companions are still at large, although the police throughout the State have been put on the lookout.

Ethel is widely known in Portland before coming to the new home in Salem. She attracted much attention by riding through the business section of Portland frequently, clad in typical Wild West costume. An excellent horsewoman, her untamed spirit got away with her, and after too many escapades in Portland she was brought here, where it was thought her desire for liberty would be eradicated.

Officers of the Industrial school thought that they had Miss Smith in hand. But still waters run deep, and after weeks of exemplary conduct the embryo terror of the plains pulled off her big coup last night.

With Miss Smith went Rinda Fisher, aged 17, and Opal Lattin, 19, of Eugene, and Catherine D'Arcy, aged 18, of this city.

ISADOR JACOB'S DAUGHTER ASKS DIVORCE

of this State, and a cousin of Nathan Straus, New York philanthropist, and Oscar Straus, former Ambassador to Turkey, yesterday filed a suit for divorce against Joseph Edward Hill, Mrs. Hill charges her husband with overindulgence with other women.

The Hills were married in this city July 25, 1907, and have one daughter, Mary, thirteen months old. Mrs. Hill asks her for the custody of the child and $50 a month for the support of the infant. Since she separated from her husband several months ago, Mrs. Hill has been making her home with her parents at 3018 Webster street. Her husband is connected with the Mercantile Chamber of Commerce.

In her complaint, Mrs. Hill charges that her husband visited the St. Mark's Hotel, Oakland, December 10, 1911, and the Hotel Van Nuys, Los Angeles, June 28, 1914, accompanied each time by a woman, whose identity Mrs. Hill does not reveal. Mrs. Hill is represented by Attorney Joseph C. Meyerstein.

GIRL SWIMS THROUGH PERILOUS HELL GATE

NEW YORK, July 4.—Miss Nora Leary, of Bath Beach, accomplished what is perhaps the most dangerous swim in America, when she swam through Hell Gate yesterday afternoon. One other woman, Miss Adeline Trapp, has been credited with the achievement.

Miss Leary swam from the foot of Eighty-fourth street to Clason Point, a distance of seven and a half miles, in exactly two hours, breaking the ten-minute record established by her predecessor in 1909 by ten minutes. Miss Leary is only nineteen years old.

BREAKER OF HEARTS TO WED YALE MAN

CHICAGO, July 4.—The wedding of Chauncey McCormick of Chicago to Miss Marion Deering of New York was held for July 4. Miss Deering has a long record of broken hearts. The brother of the celebrated Deering twins, she is said to have had more suitors than any other woman in New York.

A few years ago while in India a Rajah laid his jewels at her feet, but she spurned them. Since she has been in Paris with her parents several young princes have paid her marked attention. When young Chauncey McCormick, handsome Yale man, came over recently, however, Miss Deering made no difficulty in naming the day.

COLD SHOWER DECLARED BRUTAL TO WOMAN

STOCKTON, July 4.—That pouring cold water on a woman as a means of getting her out of bed early in the morning constitutes legal cruelty is the opinion of Superior Judge Frank Smith, who has granted a divorce to Mrs. Alice A. Holman.

Mrs. Holman testified that throughout her sixteen years of married life the defendant, Charles C. Holman, had committed many acts of cruelty against her. She declared that when Holman wished to arouse her early in the morning he would stealthily secure a cup of cold water and dash it in her face.

The Court granted alimony in the amount of $35 a month.

WOMAN WITH PISTOLS TRIES TO SEE KING

LONDON, July 4.—A well-dressed woman called at Buckingham Palace last evening and insisted on seeing the king. She was arrested, and, when searched, two loaded revolvers were found in her possession. The Queen was in the palace at the time, but the King is at Shrewsbury.

A BEAUTIFUL PANORAMIC VIEW

July 5th, to Exposition grounds. Two hours to view the wonderful progress being made. No more beautiful scenery than from deck of ferry approaching the grounds. Boat will leave Key System Pier at 2.55 p. m. Connecting trains leave all stations one-half hour earlier. Returning leave at 6 p. m.

GOVERNORS UNITE IN PLAN FOR TO HOLD MEET

Governors Unite in Plan for Commercial Congress, 1915.

SACRAMENTO, July 4.—The call for the Western Commercial Congress to be held in Sacramento March 25-26, 1915, which President Wilson has agreed tentatively to attend, was issued here last night. The call is signed by Governor Johnson and the following governors of the ten states west of the Rockies:

John M. Haines, Idaho; George W. P. Hunt, Arizona; Oswald West, Oregon; William C. McDonald, New Mexico; Ernest Lister, Washington; Sam V. Stewart, Montana; Elias M. Ammons, Colorado; William Spry, Utah; Joseph M. Carey, Wyoming.

Twenty-five leading men of the west will be in control of the arrangements for the congress. Of these Governor Johnson will appoint five, while the other ten governors will appoint two each.

D. W. Carmichael, president of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, probably will head the committee of 25. The four other California members whose names have been approved by Governor Johnson are:

Rufus R. Wilson, Sacramento; William R. Wheeler, San Francisco; Rufus P. Jennings, San Francisco, and William E. Brown, Los Angeles.

The call reads as follows: "Thoughtful men agree that immediate and far-reaching changes in the social and industrial life of the Pacific coast and its hinterland will follow the completion of the Panama canal. There is also general agreement that there should be early and united discussion of these changes in a manner and on a scale that will permanently impress their seriousness and importance upon the popular mind. Looking to that end we urge participation by the commercial bodies and development agencies of the Pacific coast and neighboring states in a commercial congress to be held at Sacramento, Cal., March 25, 26, and 27, 1915, and we advise that the following be made the chief topics of discussion by that body:

"How will the opening of the canal effect the important export trade of the Pacific coast?"

"How must railway rates be adjusted so as to assure ready distribution from the coast into the interior of goods transported to the canal from the eastern states, Europe and Orient?"

"How shall the inland waterways of the western states be improved so as to make them economical and effective agents for the distribution of commerce coming to the Pacific coast through the canal?"

"How, in the largest practicable measure, with direct concern for Western America, can the canal be made to reduce the costs and risks of trade, expand industry and create new fields for the profitable employment of labor?"

"How must present processes of manufacture and methods of banking be altered so as to assure to its builders full use of the opportunities made possible by the construction of the canal?"

Should free ports be provided at the terminus of the canal where goods, while awaiting sale and reshipment, may be warehoused without payment of customs duties or undue hampering through customs regulations?"

"What provision should and must be made for the thousands of immigrants, a great majority of them wage-earners of small means, who will flock to this coast during the next five years?"

"What changes must be made in the land tax laws of the coast and neighboring states in order to guarantee to the homeseeker the acquisition at fair price and on equitable terms of the land which will give him a permanent stake in the general welfare?"

"There is great and pressing need for collective and informing discussion of the above subjects. It is the belief of the Association and its members that the proposed commercial congress."

Local arrangements for the congress will be in the hands of a large committee of representative citizens to be organized Friday night. Alden Anderson, president of the Capital National Bank, will probably be chairman of this committee.

The membership of this committee will be as follows:

Joseph M. Anderson, George A. Cummings and Rufus R. Wilson of the Ad Club; M. W. Nathan, Morris Brooke and S. Glen Andrews of the Chamber of Commerce; J. E. Hutton, F. H. Pierce and George W. Fetter of the Clearing House Association; John Lynn, S. J. Griffing and C. B. Martin, Retail Merchants' Association; Marshall Dicks, A. Beard, James Mills, Samuel Valley, Development Association; Mrs. Hugh Bradford, Mrs. Louise Garigan, Mrs. C. H. Adams, Women's Council, members at large; D. W. Carmichael, Alden Anderson, V. S. McClellan, J. A. Fitcher, Lynn C. Symptom, Robert Callahan, E. J. Carragher, A. M. Calver, J. C. Harvey, J. R. Wilson, James Ogara, E. J. Gammons, A. T. Hodge and P. C. Cohn.

HUSBAND IS 79, BUT HE CAN MILK HER COW

KANSAS CITY, Kan., July 4.—John C. Beck, 78 years old, of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Lydia Reeves, 69 years old, No. 500 Baltimore avenue, were married in Kansas City, Kan.

"I've got a cow at home and I thought it would be handy to have some one to get up in the morning and milk it for me," Mrs. Reeves told H. F. McPherson, license clerk, while they were getting the license.

He became acquainted with Beck through an old soldier friend of his at the Soldiers' Home at Leavenworth," said the bride. "It was love at first sight, and, besides, it's handy to have a man around the house."

SOON'S COYOTE BOUNTY MAKES TOTAL OF $590

ATCHISON, Kan., July 4.—Cudley, a dog owned by Hick Colgan, a farmer near here, is valued not only as a watch dog but also as a money-maker. In ten years it has made $380 for its owner, who collected that amount in bounties for wolves and coyotes, which the dog helped kill.

"Madame Isebell's" Beauty Lesson

EFFECT OF ILL HEALTH ON THE EYES

It is generally recognized now by medical authorities that excessive fatigue will generate a toxin which may produce disastrous effects on the body. I know of nothing more heathy destroying than excessive fatigue, nothing that shows more quickly about the eyes. Walking is excellent exercise and most important in keeping the blood in good circulation. Walking under proper conditions promotes deep breathing, aids digestion, improves the circulation and burns up excess fat. It has an important part in the beauty regime.

On the other hand walking when one is over tired, nervous, or burdened with business or improper clothing may be responsible for this toxin of fatigue which should be avoided. So, for your beauty's sake avoid excessive fatigue whenever possible.

Bags Under the Eyes. A correspondent writes me of loose flesh forming below the eyes, just over the cheek bone, and asks for a remedy. This trouble in a young woman is apt to indicate some disturbance of the kidney or bladder; this may not be serious, but it is advisable to find out if such a condition exists and remedy it. I advise drinking pure water freely between meals; this alone will sometimes cure a simple bladder irritation.

Now for local treatment. Cover the skin around the eyes and below the eyes with a good skin food or with very cold water. Forefingers flat against the side of the face parallel with the line of the nose and just back of the eyes. Now open and close the eyes vigorously, letting the fingers slip slowly backwards towards the hair line. It should take about eight winks for the fingers to reach the hair line. This exercises and strengthens the muscles about and under the eyes and as the muscles grow stronger the loose skin will disappear. Do this two minutes twice a day.

After you have finished wipe off the surplus cream and bathe about the eyes with an astringent or with very cold water. This will aid in the skin contraction. Twice a week finish the treatment by rubbing the affected part with a lump of ice wrapped in a clean piece of soft linen.

"SEVEN SISTERS" RADICAL BILLS

Initiative Petitions for Submission of Washington Measures Filed.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 4.—Initiative petitions for submission of the "seven sisters" bills known as the "seven sisters" to the voters at the November election were filed with Secretary of State Howell yesterday by Miss Lucy Case of Seattle.

Of the petitions contained 35,000 names each on the other, the petition for the new fish code, contained 34,000, Miss Case said. Thirty-two thousand signatures are required to place an initiative measure on the ballot. The petitions filed must be checked for duplications and illegal signatures before it will be known whether the measure can go on the ballot.

The "seven sisters" initiative bills, which were fathered by the labor unions and the state grange, would abolish the state tax commission and the state bureau of inspection of public officers; enact "anti-trust" laws; state road; provide for the employment of all convicts, except those serving life terms, upon highway constructions; add a first amendment to the workmen's compensation act; enact a "blue sky" law, and a new fish code.

Another initiative bill not included in the "seven sisters," but fathered by the Socialists, would establish an eight-hour day for workmen in all industries.

ARIZONA TO EXHIBIT AT SAN DIEGO FAIR

SAN DIEGO, July 4.—Thirty-five thousand dollars will be appropriated by Arizona for a state building at the Panama-California Exposition here in 1915, according to J. R. Kerr, of Yuma, Ariz., who was in San Diego yesterday.

Kerr received a telegram from Charles Adams, a member of the Arizona Exposition Committee, appointed by Governor George Hunt, the message stating that enough signatures had been secured on an initiative petition to assure the necessary appropriation.

The funds for the Arizona building will be available by next fall and the structure will be completed in time for the opening of the Exposition on January 1. An extensive exhibit of Arizona industries and products will be placed in the building.

SECOND TRIAL FAILS TO CONVICT BONIFACE

SAN JOSE, July 4.—The second trial of Jerry Chargin, proprietor of an all-night restaurant, on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a 16-year-old girl by buying liquor for her, resulted in the jury failing to agree. The jury at the first trial, held in January, voted six to six, as they did in the trial which ended today.

OHIO MINERS ACCEPT NEW WAGE AGREEMENT

OLUMBUS, Ohio, July 4.—Representatives of coal miners and operators of the Hocking, Pomeroy and Jackson districts, and a part of the Crooksville district, in session here last night, signed a new wage agreement on the mine basis, prescribed by the Ohio anti-scan law.

The scale was finally agreed on was 47 and 67 cents respectively for machine and pick mined coal. More than 26,000 miners are affected by the action. The state convention was called last night for next Thursday. Miners' officials said the scale would be ratified.

RESERVE BANK NOTES WILL BE ISSUED SOON

WASHINGTON, July 4.—It is expected that plans for issuing the new Federal reserve bank notes will be completed within the next month. It has been virtually decided that notes of all denominations will have a green back of the same design. The new notes will be in denominations of $5, $10, $20, $50 and $100. Portraits of Lincoln, Cleveland, Franklin, Jackson and Grant have been considered, but a final decision has not been reached.

Facial Eruptions

(By Lillian Russell)

Copyright, By LILLIAN RUSSELL.

PIMPLES and acne are generally associated in thought with poverty and lack of pure foods. That is an erroneous idea from which you can clear your mind readily by going about among the poorest and observing their complexions. You will see paleness and wan cheeks, sad eyes and meager bodies, but few with facial eruptions. Now make a quiet observation among your rich young set and observe the quality of their skin.

You will rarely find one in ten whose face is free from blemishes of some sort.

At this time of year pimples are plentiful, for the reason that with warmer weather people do not cut down their food rations. They go on eating meat two or three times a day, regardless of the fact that proteins heat the blood in mild weather and overheat the blood in warm weather. They fill their stomachs with pastry and sweets, the luxurious condiments, pastries, and naturally indigestion takes place, causing blotches of all descriptions.

There is a little lesson to be learned from poverty—that is, temperance and moderation. A young girl can experience intoxication from sweets which is as detrimental to beauty as the intoxication caused by liquor. All over-indulgences carry their punishment with them. Rather do without meats and sweets if you are inclined to eruptions upon your body; drink plentifully of pure water; let rice and other vegetables take the place of puddings, hot biscuits and pastry. Let one meal pass you occasionally, and, above all, do not eat at night; let your dinner be your last daily meal. Thus you will keep your blood cool and clear your complexion.

Remember: A poor working woman receiving but $1.50 a day, with five children to support, has a better chance of a perfect complexion than a millionaire's daughter.

me a stamped, addressed envelope.

MRS. G. H.—Too much oil in the skin will make the face look shiny, despite the most vigorous use of powders. Practically the only cure for this trouble is a careful diet. Fruits, salads and fresh vegetables must be substituted for pastry, candies and all oily meats, like pork and veal, must be tabooed. Coarse powders are bad for an oily skin, particularly talc powder. Use a good grade of rice powder.

TRIOLED—Never tamper with moles on the face nor irritate them in any way.

ANNA—I would not advise you to eat lemons to reduce the flesh. The best way to reduce flesh is to diet and take plenty of exercise. Sleep only seven hours, take no food during the day and walk at least three miles every twenty-four hours. I will send the formula at your request if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

Y. J.—To prevent acidity in the stomach take a bit of milk of magnesia into the mouth and allow it to penetrate every nook and corner. Dampen your toothbrush with peroxide of hydrogen and brush the teeth with this once a week. It will bleach them. I shall be happy to send you instructions for caring for the teeth.

BLANCHE—It takes time and patience to remove a scar, but I think if you will gently massage the scar with a good skin food for about ten or fifteen minutes every day it will gradually disappear. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope I shall be happy to send you a formula for the skin food. This skin food is also excellent for massaging the face.

Answers to Queries.

MARY—I am sorry, but I cannot recommend a face powder to you. I should advise you to get a good grade of pure rice powder, for the cheap powders are nothing but chalk and will ruin the complexion. The face should be thoroughly cleansed before retiring, first with a good cleansing cream and then with plenty of soap and water. And pure white soap is usually satisfactory.

GEORGE—Blackheads usually come from indigestion and clogging of the pores of the skin. I would suggest you going on a diet for a few days, omitting all greasy foods, pastry and sweets. Eat plenty of fruit and vegetables. Keep the face thoroughly cleansed. The green soap treatment is excellent for removing blackheads and rarely fails. I shall be glad to send you the green soap treatment for removing blackheads, and formula for a cleansing cream if you will send

POSTMASTERS MUST TAKE CIVIL SERVICE TESTS

WASHINGTON, July 4.—Announcement was made yesterday by the Civil Service Commission of competitive examinations for postmasters at all California postoffices where the annual salary is $1500 or more, and at which the present incumbent was not appointed under civil service regulations.

There are 698 California postoffices to which postmasters will be appointed as the result of these examinations. Applications for the positions will be examined at the nearest points to their place of residence where the examinations will be held.

Examinations will be held at the following places and on the specified dates:

August 14—Mariposa.

August 15—Alhambra, Amador, Barstow, Bodie, Campo, Crescent City, Death Valley, Downville, Fall River Mills, Hoops, Independence, Jackson, Johannesburg, Lancaster, Los Angeles, Modesto, Marysville, Merced, Nevada, Oxnard, Paso Robles, Petaluma, Placerville, Porterville, Red Bluff, Redding, Riverside, Sacramento, St. Helena, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Francisco, San Jose, San Luis Obispo, Santa Mateo, San Rafael, Santa Ana, Santa Barbara, Santa Cruz, Santa Maria, Santa Paula, Santa Ynez, San Ysidro, Santa Ynez, Turlock, Ukiah, Vacaville, Visalia, Willows, Woodland, Yreka and Escandido.

CHICAGO, July 4.—Raymond Robins of Chicago, chairman of the Progressive State Central Committee, will be the candidate of his party in Illinois for United States senator. His consent to the filing of a petition for his nomination was wired from Florida yesterday to Medill McCormick, national committeeman of Illinois.

SLAYERS OF OAKLANDER PURSUED

Quartet Believed to Be Murderers of Wharton, Flee North

Funeral of Chauffeur Takes Place in This City

Speeding in a fast automobile from the scene of their crime toward the bay cities, the four supposed murderers of Richard B. Wharton, Oakland chauffeur, whose lifeless body was found this week, hidden on a county road near Ventura, may be captured in the very city where the body of their victim was brought to his grieving family and friends for burial to-day.

Crews unearthing by the southern police and pointing to a quick automobile flight, after the abandonment of Wharton's machine, have led the chase northward, the fact that a garage was broken into along the way for gasoline, pointing to the same thugs the southern authorities believe may have been a gang of clever cracksmen, who murdered the Oakland youth to cover up traces of their criminal operations.

The funeral of the youth took place today at an Oakland undertaking parlor, Rev. J. B. O'Brien, pastor of the Myrtle Street Congregational church, officiating.

In the meantime the Oakland detective force is probing the youth's past life for secret enemies and also waiting word from the south of traces of the supposed slayers, said to be coming northward.

The body of Wharton was found on the Rincon road, near Ventura, after he had been employed by four strangers to drive them to Lankershim, near Los Angeles. When he did not return a search was started and this resulted in the finding of his remains. The man was evidently beaten to death and the body was hidden in a clump of willows by the roadside, where it was discovered Wednesday evening and since has been sent to Oakland for burial.

WAS LODGE MAX.

The man lived most of his life in this city. His mother, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, and his sister, Mrs. J. S. Shute, reside at 2018 Filbert street. Wharton was a member of an Oakland lodge of the Native Sons, the Berkeley Lodge of Elks, and is survived by his mother, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, a brother, Bert P. Wharton, and five sisters, Mrs. J. S. Shute, Mrs. E. M. Alexander, Mrs. J. P. Flynn of Indianapolis, and the Misses Anna and Elsie Wharton of Oakland.

Wharton was 28 years of age. His widow was Miss Pearl Gordon of San Francisco.

Investigation is continually deepening the mystery of Wharton's death and every effort is being made by the southern authorities to trace his movements since he went on the fatal ride. The man had been employed by a Los Angeles automobile dealer and had been out of work for a time. When he got the commission he was jubilant.

"I've buried the flim now," he declared, as he started.

SHATTERED ROMANCE.

That Wharton came to his death by being beaten to death by four persons is the verdict of the coroner's jury at Ventura.

At the same time Bert Wharton, a brother of the dead man, bared a shattered romance in the life of the murdered man that once led him to attempt to commit suicide.

A man living in the vicinity of where Wharton's automobile was found, near the Ventura river bridge, told the police that Thursday morning he had seen four men alight from an automobile and wash themselves. One of the men of small stature, shaved off his mustache.

When they had washed all four left the machine in the bushes and walked away toward the Southern Pacific tracks.

George Avis, Wharton's employer, who, with Frank White and Edward Richards, trailed the Wharton machine when it failed to return, said Wharton always had his gasoline tank and his oil tank filled at the same time. When the machine was found, Avis said, the gas tank was full and the oil tank almost empty.

"Evidently," said Avis, "the party stopped at some supply station, broke in, got gasoline, but found no oil, or failed for some other reason to fill the oil tank. This is to me evidence that Wharton had been killed by his passengers on the way to Ventura."

The fact that the body was found far up in Ventura county where Wharton was tried to go to Lankershim adds mystery to the case.

SILENT SONG IS LATEST FILM TO PICTURE NOTES OF VOICE SIXTH SENSE DOES REST

MISS BEATRICE MICHELENA, WHO'S GOING TO PROVE THE "SIXTH SENSE" BY THE ACT OF SINGING BEFORE THE "MOVIES."

Every one has a sixth sense—but to reach it is the difficult part of the matter. So says Beatrice Michelena, noted singer, who declares that she can sing through "the movies," because of this sixth sense in an audience, and, after many experiments, is going to attempt it soon. Miss Michelena sings before the "movie" camera. The pictures are produced, and the audience, looking, evolves her voice from its subconscious memories.

heavy blows delivered by a powerful hand.

PASSENGERS UNKNOWN.

Wharton, aged 28, had been employed as chauffeur for George J. Avis, who has an auto and taxi stand at 338 South Spring street, Los Angeles. He had been married two years and was said to be steady, reliable, and was not known to have had trouble with any one.

Wednesday evening of last week he was engaged by two men to drive him to Lankershim. He expected to get back that night. At 5 o'clock the following morning he appeared at Ventura. He had three passengers then, but unfortunately he had been told by one of them that he was unable to describe any member of the party.

Later that morning the touring car which the party had used was found abandoned on the bank of the Ventura river in the western part of the city. Wharton's car was in the back seat, but no one has been found who saw the car drive up there or any one leave it.

Bert Wharton hurried to Ventura upon hearing about the deserted auto. Two deputy sheriffs from the Los Angeles office accompanied him and they spent the day looking for clues and gave up the search as a complete failure.

ADDS TO MYSTERY.

It has been the theory of Mrs. Wharton and other members of the family that Richard was murdered, but all of the circumstances up to the present time have baffled them and even the little light now available, which reveals a tragedy, lights the way to deeper darkness than ever.

Mrs. Wharton, the widow, who has been staying with the family of Bert Wharton at 1812 South Bonnie Brae street, Los Angeles, is aiding the officials.

Hired by Robbers?

The Los Angeles police believe that the men who hired Wharton to rush them to Lankershim may have been the burglars who broke into the H. B. Crouch jewelry store, 754 South Hill street, Los Angeles, a week ago Thursday and stole $5000 worth of gems.

The theory is that the burglars lay in hiding until early Thursday morning, and then got Wharton to take them out of town. Wharton, the police argue, may have gotten some hint of their real character and forfeited his life.

The other chauffeurs whose stands are near Wharton's at 452 South Spring street, told the police that the strangers appeared nervous and agitated and that they evidently were strangers to Wharton.

After a meeting together the manager information we have been able to gather, reports Sheriff McMartin of Ventura, "we have concluded that one of two things happened."

"Wharton, when he reached Lankershim with the two mysterious men, was demanded his fare and, on being refused, declined to go further and was struck down."

"Or Wharton may have gone on with conjured it forth from some rotative brain cell.

"They say only a few people have the sixth sense," declared Miss Michelena. "That's a mistake. Every one has it, but it is difficult to observe its action. I think that singing in the movies will prove this. I have experienced long on the plan."

Miss Michelena will make a number of films within the next few days. She is now in San Francisco rehearsing.

his passengers, witnessed a criminal act on their part, and then was killed to prevent his relating the story of the crime.

"I firmly believe that Wharton was felled and murdered by these passengers somewhere between Lankershim and Ventura, for the body was bent as though it had been kept for some time in a sitting posture in the automobile."

"We have only meager descriptions of the murderers. Two men started with Wharton from Los Angeles, but an old man named Baxter saw four men alight from an automobile near where Wharton's car later was found, and wash themselves before leaving the car and starting for the railroad."

"None of these four men, declared Baxter, resembled the unfortunate chauffeur. One of them had shaved off his mustache. I believe the four men walked along the Southern Pacific right-of-way and boarded a train at one of the stations, between Ventura and Santa Barbara."

WIFE HAS FEARS.

A strange presentation of Wharton's coming to harm was unearthed by the police in interviews with Mrs. J. S. Shute, his sister, who declares that Mrs. Bert Wharton wrote, telling of uneasiness on the part of Wharton's wife at the time he left on the trip. Only a few hours before the body was found at Ventura she received a letter outlining the wife's fears.

"We think Dick got out as far as Lankershim," wrote Mrs. Bert Wharton, "and did not want to take those fellows on; and that they had done something here in Los Angeles and had to get away and they just made Dick take them to Ventura."

AGUINALDO'S SON DOESN'T SERVE; NOW DESERTER

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—Guillermo Rodriguez Aguinaldo, son of the fiery former leader of the Filipinos, who gave the United States a great deal of trouble sixteen years ago, was posted yesterday at Yerba Buena island as a deserter from the United States Navy. A reward of $100 was offered for his capture.

Young Aguinaldo enlisted in the navy at Salt Lake City June 20 and was under orders to report to Yerba Buena island July 1. He has not appeared yet. Aguinaldo is 24 years old.

"My father gave me permission to join the United States Navy on two conditions," Aguinaldo said to the recruiting officer. "These two conditions are that I keep the family name unimpaired"

The young Filipino may be fulfilling the later condition of his father, but the Aguinaldo family name got a bit tarnished yesterday.

The Navy Department considered young Aguinaldo a splendid feather in its cap. Ever since the occupation of the Philippines the army and navy have encouraged Filipinos to enter the war service. It was believed that young Aguinaldo's example of enlisting in the navy would draw a great many Filipino recruits for both the army and navy. He had no sooner enlisted than the news was flashed to the Philippines and his tribesmen at home were informed.

Now that Aguinaldo has deserted the Navy Department has turned around to get another object lesson before the brown subjects of these islands are offered an unusually large reward for Aguinaldo's capture.

DOCTOR'S WIFE JEALOUS OF NURSE

Mrs. Carman Slapped Face of Woman in Physician's Office.

FREERPORT, N. Y., July 4.—The recess in the coroner's inquest until Monday was taken advantage of today by District Attorney Smith and Sheriff Pettit to investigate certain features of the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, developed at the hearing before Coroner Norton yesterday. The search for the pistol with which Mrs. Bailey was killed as she was about to leave Dr. Edwin Carman's office on last Tuesday evening was to be continued, it was said.

Conflicting stories marked the inquest yesterday. The statement of George Golden, a farmer, that he saw Mrs. Carman passing through the hall of the doctor's house, adjoining his office, within five minutes of the murder, was contradicted by Mrs. Carman, who declared that she was in bed at the time. Later Golden identified Mrs. Carman as the woman he had seen when the question arose if it could not have been her sister, Mrs. Ida Powell.

TELL OF QUARREL.

This identification was only part of the ordeal which Mrs. Carman was obliged to undergo at the inquest. Under searching questioning as to her use of a telephone desk to listen to conversations between her husband and his women patients, she was forced to reveal the cause of her jealousy. There was a quarrel, about which Dr. Carman also testified.

Mrs. Carman said that she found the doctor and a nurse, in his private office at a time he was handing the nurse some money. Also both were made to tell how Mrs. Carman had slapped her rival's face, taken the money away and ordered her from the house.

This woman was a Mrs. Elizabeth Varlane of Seaford, a town seven miles from Freerport. She will be called as a witness in the case on Monday, when the inquest is resumed.

For detectives from New York retained by Roland Lamb, the village president, began to work on the case today.

DR. SHAW REDUKES Leader Declares Suffragists Saw Wilson Without Authority.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Woman Suffrage Association, in a letter to President Wilson, made public today, indicated her disapproval of the action of the suffragists who went to the White House on Wednesday and drew from the President a final refusal to support a suffrage amendment to the Federal Constitution.

The visit on Wednesday was arranged by the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, whose leaders do not agree with officers of the association on methods to be employed in working for the cause.

"The officers of the National Woman Suffrage Association desire on its behalf to state that when you granted an audience to its representatives who sought your aid in securing favorable Congressional action on November, to whom you stated your position as president of the United States and as the highest representative of the political party which elected you, we accepted your statement, looking forward to the time when the political situation would present a more favorable response and your great influence might be given to aid in extending the principles of the 'new freedom' to women."

To this end, through the national Congressional committee, of which Mrs. Medill McCormick is chairman, we have sought to secure favorable Congressional action; but at no time has any delegation from the National Woman Suffrage Association endeavored to obtain an audience with you upon this subject since November, 1913.

"We greatly deplore any act in the name of woman suffrage which mars the record of dignity, lawfulness and patriotism which has been the conduct of our campaigns to obtain political justice for women in the United States."

SUCCESSFULLY SUPPRESS USE OF OPIUM IN CHINA

PEKING, July 4.—Manchuria and eleven of the eighteen provinces forming China proper are declared to be free of opium, and the British government, has agreed that, according to a previous arrangement, no Indian opium should be permitted to enter these provinces.

The Chinese government has sent instructions to the governors of the remaining provinces in the republic to put down the use of opium and prohibit the cultivation of the poppy before the end of the year.

The success of the anti-opium campaign in China is regarded as conspicuous, considering the government's inability or lack of serious effort to terminate brigandage and other evils.

FAR TRIAL FOR CONDEMNED BRITISHER

Consul to Use Influence in Securing Douglass' Release.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—Assurance has been given to the British embassy here that George St. Clair Douglass, the Englishman condemned to death as a spy by Constitutionalists, will have a fair trial.

United States Consul Hamm left Durango at the order of the State Department for Zacatecas, where Douglass is confined, to use his influence in securing the Englishman's release.

AWAIT DECISION OF CARRANZA.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—With next moves in the attempt to restore peace in Mexico by mediation still awaiting Carranza's decision on the invitation to enter into negotiations with Huerta, administration officials today keenly watched developments at Torreon, where a military commission was trying to patch up differences among the Constitutionalists. Messages from the border pressing confidence that at least a temporary compromise between Villa and Carranza would be effected, encouraged President Wilson and his advisers and the Washington agents of the revolutionaries.

Court proceedings over the delivery of some currency engraved in Washington for the Constitutionalists, interpreted as one development of the discussion among leaders of the northern faction, were held for Edmundo Villalaz, Carranza's secretary of the treasury, applied in the district supreme court for an order to compel three express companies to deliver notes of a face value of several million pesos now en route to the border. Justice Anderson signed an order which was returnable Monday. In his petition, Villalaz charged that Santiago S. Winfield had not forwarded from Washington the proper manner a final consignment of new money, but had addressed it to himself or to some other person. The petition declared there was danger that the money "would be diverted from the Constitutional cause."

AGENTS SILENT.

None of the Constitutional agents in Washington would discuss the proceedings. It was said, however, that Winfield was an adherent of Villa.

In the order which was returnable Monday, the petition was declared, pending the action on the petition next Monday.

Differences of opinion over Carranza's probable action on the invitation to send envoys to discuss Mexico's internal complications, were held for Edmundo Villalaz, Carranza's secretary of the treasury, applied in the district supreme court for an order to compel three express companies to deliver notes of a face value of several million pesos now en route to the border. MONEY IS BARRED.

EL PASO, Texas, July 4.—Further evidence of the completeness of the Carranza-Villa split was found in an injunction on file in the state district court here today, which prohibited the entry into Villa territory of 400,000 pesos in Constitutional currency recently printed by an American company. The action was taken by Carranza agents here.

The issue had been ordered before the internal troubles of the Constitutionalists. Carranza's army, which has resulted in the conference between the military leaders in progress today at Torreon. The money arrived here conveyed by national treasury officers at Juarez, and the Carranza representatives at once asked the injunction against the express companies, which had the consignment and La Zarza de La Garza, Villa's agent at El Paso. The paper of the regular national Congress, which was intended to dissolve the various state legislatures, was to have received his proportion of this new issue, which was represented in the consignment seized here.

The first public demonstration of the trouble between the Constitutional chief and his northern commander resulted in the confiscation at Juarez of funds of the national Constitutional treasury and a strike point, which Carranza's treasury general and other employees, El Paso has been a distributing point for the national currency. MAYOR ESCAPES ASSASSIN'S DIRK Butte Executive Fires at and Wounds Assailant When Attacked.

BUTTE, Mont., July 4.—Mayor Lewis J. Duncan, Butte's Socialist executive, is resting at his home today, little the worse for his experience late yesterday, when he barely escaped with his life from a would-be assassin.

The mayor received three slight scratches on the neck and shoulder from the long dirk used by Eric Lantala, his assailant. Lantala was taken last night to a hospital. His condition today is said to be extremely critical. He was shot by the mayor as the executive lay on the floor wounded.

In discussing the affair today Mayor Duncan stated he believed the attack upon him would cause a reaction of sentiment among the miners of Butte and that they would turn from the lawless element which has caused so much violence.

Although suffering intensely from his wounds, Lantala asked that "Muckie" McDonald and J. E. Bradley, officers of the new miners' union, be sent for. They came to his bedside and shook hands with him.

CHIEF OF POLICE RIDES THROAT OF PIN

STURGEON, Miss. (4)—While she was waiting for a train to take her to a hospital, where she was to undergo an operation to remove a white-headed pin from her throat, Miss Mary Austin went to choir practice. She did not intend to sing, but as her throat did not hurt her joined with the others. The first high note dislodged the pin.

MARCH SOLDIERS UP STREET, MARCH 'EM DOWN AGAIN

SEATTLE, July 4.—In order to comply with the state law which requires all militia companies to parade on the Fourth of July and at the same time not interfere with the militiamen's holiday plans, the First Company, Coast Artillery reserve corps, Washington National guard, marched through the streets of Seattle shortly after midnight. The First Company, which is the only one now in the city, all the other militia organizations being at maneuvers, left the state armory at one minute past midnight, marched a dozen blocks to the city hall and marched back to the armory.

MILLIONAIRES KICK

Piedmont Trustees Impose Dog License Tax; Hence Their Protest.

"Let dogs delight to bark and bite," the Piedmont trustees say.

The lawmakers of the hill town where millionaires hold sway have another fight on their hands, and it's all because they want to tax the millionaires' dogs, those exclusive canines who remain in back yards and never mingle with the common flea-bearing pack of the plebeian. They want $2 apiece for these blooded canines and the millionaires are wroth.

The fight, it is declared, will result in organized action through the courts to declare this tax unlawful. The move was started a week when Dr. Carl W. Schmidt threw down the gauntlet to the trustees.

Dr. Schmidt declares that he'll go to jail before he pays $2 as a license on each of his blooded dogs, which, he declares, are never on the streets while other people's are.

The ultimatum came on the heels of the announcement of the trustees that whether dogs are kept in back yards or not makes no difference, that tax must be paid.

"It is unfair," declares Schmidt, "for my dogs are kept in my back yard and are not a nuisance to my neighbors. I'll make a fight to have this matter changed. My neighbors' dogs come in and tear up my lawn. Mine never get out. Why should I pay for dogs that are not a nuisance?"

The case will come before the Piedmont trustees at their next meeting, when the doctor's protest will be read.

GOTHAM ATHLETES WREST VICTORIES

Championship Titles Won From British Holders at Stamford Bridge.

LONDON, July 4.—W. M. Oler Jr. and Homer Baker carried the colors of the New York Athletic Club to victory today in the high jump and the half-mile flat race respectively, at Stamford Bridge and wrestled the championship titles from their British holders.

W. F. Potter of Yale University also made a splendid bid for the 120 yards hurdles title. He won his heat easily, but in the final lost to the British holder, C. H. Gray, by only two feet.

Oler, with a magnificent effort in his last try, took the high jump title from B. H. Baker of Liverpool. Both cleared 6 feet 2 inches. Then the Englishman failed three times at 6 feet 2 inches. The American failed twice at that height before he successfully negotiated it and won the title.

CAPTURES 220-YARD EVENT.

W. R. Applegarth, of Polytechnic Harriers, in addition to winning the title for the 100 yards, took that for the 220-yard sprint, which he did in 21.5 seconds, equaling the record.

J. C. Patterson, of Pennsylvania University, ran in one of the preliminary heats of the 100 yards flat, but was beaten by V. H. A. D'Arcy, Polytechnic Harriers, 10 seconds flat.

G. H. Gray, of the Sanford Harriers, the holder of the title, again won the 120-yard hurdles championship. W. F. Potter, of Yale University and the New York Athletic Club, was second, and K. Powell, of Cambridge University and the London Athletic Club, third. The time was 15.4 seconds.

BREAKS BRITISH RECORD.

Baker won the half-mile race by two yards, his time being the record for these championships and nearly 21.5 seconds under the British amateur record.

W. R. Applegarth, Polytechnic Harriers, the holder, retained his title to the 100 yards flat championship, winning in 10 seconds flat. G. W. Taylor, Surrey Athletic Club, was second, and V. H. A. D'Arcy, Polytechnic, third.

W. M. Oler Jr., of the New York Athletic Club, won the high jump championship, with a jump of 6 feet 2.5 inches.

B. H. Baker, of the Liverpool Harriers, the holder, jumped 6 feet 2 inches, and was placed second, while J. F. Simons, of Princeton University, was third, with 6 feet.

C. K. Sneedhouse, of the Blackheath Harriers, won the quarter-mile, his time being 50 seconds. A. P. Mitchell, of London University, was second, and Homer Baker, New York Athletic Club, third.

W. F. Potter, of Yale University, won his heat in the 120-yard hurdles championship in 16.3 seconds.

CUT IN ERAWL.

William Guthrie, a sewer, was out in the hard drizzle a storm blew last night and had to have fourteen stitches taken in the wound at the receiving hospital, as he is being held in detention pending an investigation of the case.

PICNICKERS KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Two Dead, Fifteen Are Injured When Building Is Destroyed

Celebration Has Tragic Ending in Oklahoma

SALLISAW, Okla., July 4.—Two persons were killed and fifteen seriously injured at a picnic ground near Sallisaw late yesterday, when a building in which many persons had taken refuge from a storm was struck by lightning and wrecked. Several thousand persons were on the ground attending a Fourth of July celebration and political rally. United States Senator T. P. Gore, who had just finished speaking when the crowd was driven to shelter, was not injured.

The dead are: HOOPER MCKAILL, a youth of Sallisaw. JOHN STEWART, a farmer of Atkins, Okla.

Probably fatally injured: George Martin, superintendent of Sallisaw Light and Power Company. James Redding, a lineman. Albert Peters of Sallisaw.

Mrs. Martha Foster of Sallisaw. Besides those seriously hurt a score or more persons were knocked to the ground and bruised.

Five others are reported to have met death in the storm. It was said today that two women injured on the picnic grounds had died after being removed.

A rumor also said three children had been killed by lightning in a gypsy camp near the town.

ROBBED OF MONEY AND THEN OF GUN

Bargeman Is Humiliated When, Armed, He Demands Restitution.

Bold, bad bandits from Alameda proved to be the bane of one Jack Long, who lives in a barge on the Oakland estuary at the foot of High street. Long was robbed of $20 by the bandits, and when he attempted to regain possession of his money by getting his shotgun the robbers acted in a totally unmanly and ungentlemanly way toward him.

Long met two men from Alameda in Oakland and walked with them toward his barge. On reaching the barge, as a friendly tussle with one of the men his purse had been taken.

"Wait a minute," he shouted, as he entered the barge. "I want to show you something."

Long emerged armed with a large double-barreled shotgun, which had cost him $25. He leveled it at the two evil strangers.

"Come across with my coin," he demanded in a stern tone of voice, and to emphasize his demands he raised the weapon a little higher and fired into the air.

"That's not a friendly way to act," said one of the bandits.

Before Long could decide what to do next, the two men sat upon him, took away his shotgun and threatened him with it.

"You go home and go to bed," suggested the robbers. "This gun isn't a good thing to play with if you don't know how to use it. We'll take it along."

Long has asked the police to recover the weapon.

WOMEN QUARREL; POLICE ARRIVE

One Throws Shoes in Other's Face; Hospital Is Necessary.

"It isn't 'Bing'!" "Bing!"

And a pair of shoes, carefully wrapped in brown paper, landed with accuracy and force on the pretty nose of Miss Rachael Clark, who straightaway collapsed, screamed, and was rushed to the Emergency hospital by the police. Thus did the shoes settle the quarrel.

Rachael, at the same time, Miss Clark, with her sister, Lida, both of 542 Lewis avenue, were out for a walk last night, according to the story told the police, when they met Allen Wallace of 1733 Chase street at Seventh and Fennell streets. They talked of hobbie skirts, tango pumps, politics and pies, and finally reached a point of disagreement on whether pink or blue mauls are better for a spring party.

The argument waxed warm. Miss Clark, who was wearing a new hat, of shes, just resoled. In her hand, she let them fly, and the quarrel was a large bruise from nose to forehead. No arrests were made.

TEACHERS PLEASED WITH THEIR WORK

Directors of California Association to Decide Meeting Place.

BERKELEY, July 4.—Those delegates to the California High School Teachers' association which closed its annual convention with the election of H. G. Williams of Sacramento as president yesterday afternoon, who did not return to their homes for the purpose of the week-end, are a little after nine o'clock.

The teachers were much pleased today with the results of the convention and are confident that much good will come of the deliberations. An afternoon of the session was devoted to an athletic contest which was held at the Hotel Shattuck.

One question left open to subsequent discussion is as to whether the session of next year, instead of being held at the University of California, shall not take place jointly with that of the California Association of Teachers.

The tramping party left Berkeley a little after nine o'clock. The teachers were much pleased today with the results of the convention and are confident that much good will come of the deliberations. An afternoon of the session was devoted to an athletic contest which was held at the Hotel Shattuck.

By far the most discussion was given to the resolution calling for an indorsement of the state board of education's declaration in favor of enforcing the law giving equal salaries to men and women.

As originally drawn, the resolution asking for a declaration of the state board of education in favor of enforcing the law giving equal salaries to men and women was a simple statement of the fact that the state board of education had declared in favor of enforcing the law giving equal salaries to men and women.

TAKE 4TH OF JULY DIP FUN ON ALAMEDA BEACH

MISS JEANETTE BENNETT, ONE OF THE PRETTY MERMAIDS WHO TOOK PART IN JULY 4 CELEBRATION AT ALAMEDA BEACH.

ALAMEDA, July 4.—Alameda's beaches were the mecca for thousands of visitors today, the cooling surf being an invitation for many to come to this city. A program of events served as an attraction at Surf Beach Park this afternoon. Many of the pretty mermaids were on hand and participated in the various events.

The program included a 50-yard dash, an exhibition race by women, a life-saving contest, an exhibition trapeze diving contest, a springboard contest and a comedy stunt.

There was also an exhibition of high diving, Harry Kern and Bart Coffin being among the divers.

Among the pretty mermaids who took part in the events were Jeanette Bennett, Margaret Brack, Nell Schmidt and Alice Bronner.

INSTITUTES WILL CELEBRATE DAY JOIN CONVENTION AT SAN LORENZO

San Leandro Councils Arrange to Send Delegates to Santa Rosa

SAN LEANDRO, July 4.—The Young Ladies' Institute and Young Men's Institute councils of Alameda county will hold a joint convention next month in Santa Rosa. It has been the custom for the two bodies to hold separate conventions. Committees from the Y. L. I. and the Y. M. I. councils will meet and formulate plans for the convention this month.

Hanna Council, No. 58, Young Ladies' Institute of San Leandro, will send representatives to the convention and has appointed a committee consisting of Mrs. J. A. Wagner, Miss Lena and Miss May Hooley and Miss May Quados to confer with Cadillo Council, Young Men's Institute, of Oakland, on July 13. Members of Cadillo Council attended a meeting of Hanna Council on Thursday night when it was agreed the San Leandro Council would attend the joint convention.

The first of a series of parties and entertainments given by Hanna Council will take place on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. Wagner on Sybil avenue, when whist will be played.

Miss May Enos will later entertain at a garden party at her home.

Plan Long Tramp Physician, Hiker

DR. R. I. WOOLSEY.

BERKELEY, July 4.—Dr. R. I. Woolsey, a member of the board of education, is one of a party of three Berkeley men who sailed today for Eureka, planning to make their way back from that port overland on foot.

With Woolsey went I. H. Pfaffinger and Joseph Plummer. They sailed on the City of Topeka from San Francisco this noon.

Only a day or so will be spent by the party at Eureka. Then they will leave for the long tramp home. Most of the time they expect to make towns for night stops, though they carry paraphernalia for camping out if this becomes necessary.

The length of the tramp is 200 miles. The party intends walking practically the whole way to the bay.

FOULEST DEEDS BLACKEN DAY

"Sane Fourth" Voyage of the Northbrae Pirates Dreadful; "Penny Dreadful."

BERKELEY, July 4.—Headed by Peter B. Kyan, the evening party of the Thousand Oaks Bohemians set sail from the city wharf this morning on the steamer Victory, chartered for day's "sane Fourth" excursion on the bay. Then commenced the enactment of a thrilling nautical drama, "Spun Yarns, or the Cruise of the Northbrae Pirates," prepared, of course,

In the party were also Mrs. Kyan, Captain and Mrs. John R. Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. John Duffie, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Flagler, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Grigsby, Professor and Mrs. Graham and others.

Here is the list of terrible things that Kyan had planned for appearance during the eventful voyage.

Great masses of men came to wharf with baby carriages in tow, sailing of the Victory; wreck of the steamer String Bean and rescue of Captain Firestone; the sinking of the ship and the Gloom family from the yard-arm; landing of the Captain Kids on the Cannibal islands; the diving claims and the duel between the Sane Jelly fish and the gorilla.

Call to the feast by the Swiss bell-ringers and oranges from the island queen; burning of the ship by the Sane Family Robinson and his man Friday and slumber song by the Mothers' Tour.

NEVADA DIVORCE
LAW IS UPHELDCOURT HOLDS PROVISION REQUIRING
One Year's Residence Not Discriminatory.

CARSON CITY, Nev., July 4.—The Nevada divorce law requiring a year's residence in all cases where both parties do not reside in the state was upheld by the supreme court here yesterday by the narrowest of margins.

The decision insures that Reno will not go back to the category of a divorce center in which the city was classed until the passage of the law in 1913. The law, effective January 1, 1914, requires all coming to the state for divorce to have one year's bona fide residence before filing complaint, as contrasted with the previous law permitting the filing of complaint on a showing of mere physical presence for six months.

Residents of the state are still permitted to sue when both parties live here and complaint may be filed in the county where the plaintiff has resided for six months.

The decision followed an appeal from the refusal of the district court for Washoe county to entertain the suit of Alfred Worthington against Cecelia Worthington. Neither party resided in the state.

Objection was made to the new law that it discriminated between citizens in their right to sue and that it was not uniform operation. The court held it was uniform over properly defined classifications and that the legislature had plenary power to fix the terms of divorce jurisdiction.

LITTLE SCHOOLBOY IS BITTEN BY VICIOUS DOG

John Asanovich, a schoolboy, aged 11 years, and living at 937 Wood street, was bitten by a vicious dog yesterday. The wound in his leg was dressed at a nearby drug store. The dog belonged to A. Bruchini, a saloon keeper of Seventh and Willow streets.

RAID OPIUM DEN.

In a raid made early this morning by the police at 361 Fifth street, Ah Sing was arrested for smoking opium and Ah Sing, another Chinese, for having opium in his possession. Both men were lodged in the city prison. The raid was made by Corporal Smith and Patrolmen Berner, Orbell and Kelly.

Boy or Girl?
Great Question!

This brings to many minds an old and tried family remedy—an external application known as "Mother's Friend." During the period of expectancy it is applied to the abdominal muscles and is designed to soothe the intricate network of nerves involved. In this manner it has such a splendid influence as to justify its name.

It is its use in all cases of coming motherhood. It has been generally recommended for years and years and those who have used it speak in highest praise of the immense relief it affords. Particularly do those who are suffering from the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and freedom from those many other distresses usually looked forward to with such concern.

There is no question but what "Mother's Friend" has a marked tendency to relieve the mind and this of itself is a very wide popularity among women. You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. It has helped a host of mothers to a complete recovery. It is prepared only by Bradfield Regulator Co., 301 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. STUPENDOUS CAST
IN MIRACLE PLAY

Spectacle Represents Half a Million-Dollar Expenditure.

NEW YORK, July 4.—Announcement was made today that all preliminary arrangements have been completed for the wordless mystery spectacle, "The Miracle," which will be given in Madison Square Garden next winter.

"The Miracle," by Dr. Karl Vollmoeller, has just concluded a remarkably successful engagement in the Circus Schumann, one of the largest amphitheatres in the world, at Berlin. After an engagement at St. Petersburg, the spectacle will be brought here.

"The Miracle" is based on the legend of a man who foretold his own death and return and be finally redeemed. The original European cast and production is to be seen here. This cast consists of 2000 trained players, including a choir of 900 voices and an orchestra of 200. The production represents an outlay of nearly half a million of dollars, and is one of the most stupendous theatrical undertakings known.

$100,000 FUND FOR PLAY.

To make the thing possible in New York, a fund of $100,000 was subscribed by some of the factors in the Metropolitan Opera company, among them being Otto H. Kahn, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. J. B. Morgan, Mrs. J. P. Morgan, Mrs. J. D. Rockefeller, Benjamin H. Guinness, Daniel Guggenheim, Hugo Belsinger, and others.

The backers of "The Miracle" are not seeking financial reward but are lending their support because of the moral uplift of the play. Max Rabinoff, managing director of Mlle. Anna Pavlova, the Russian Dancer, has been chosen managing director of the American production. The combined financial resources of those behind the production total more than $200,000,000.

SEVEN ROAD SHOWS.

There will be seven or more "Potash and Perlmutter" road shows next season, according to the producers. To secure competent "P. & P."s to lead these shows, a number of Hebrew comedians began their tour of the country last week. Among these are Harry First and Phil White, Julian Rose and Julius Tannen, Jules Jordan and Lew Welch, Sam Liebert and Paul Burns, Meyer Harris and Nat Jerome, and Arthur Ross and Lew Williams.

FAMOUS COMEDIAN RETIRES.

There will be mighty few of the millions whom Joe Weber has made laugh, who will agree with him that thirty-eight years of show business is enough. In Joe Weber is retiring to assume the management of his rather extensive theatrical business. The famous comedian has been doing comedy throughout the whole of his thirty-eight years in the game. There is a saying that everything in the show business is a cycle. It is in Joe Weber and his similarly famous partner, Fanny, may not, as was hoped, do some of their work for the moving pictures. A. H. Woods almost had the comedy team lined up to a piece, "High Cost of Living," before the films but Weber's retirement, so the latter says, puts an end to the hope.

It was just like Weber, by the way, to temper his rather doleful announcement of retiring with a dash of fun. In retiring from the stage Weber declared he would not retire as world's champion of the Dutch-Irish pastime of pun-ohle playing. He is one to challenge, he explained, from any of the other 6,000,000 of their kind who are claiming to hold the title of world's champion pun-ohle player.

"Stipulative," the three act farce by John Emerson and Robert Baker, which had its premiere at Atlantic City's Apollo Theatre a week or two ago, ought to fill a large vacant spot in amusement-dom.

At times, it is true, there is a burlesque time to the piece, by reason of its multiplicity of impossible situations, but all in all it is a moving piece and thoroughly enjoyable. It ought to be a hit in Broadway next fall, or soon, if they bring it here early.

HERE'S IRONY: THIS IS INDEPENDENCE DAY

Today was holiday at the County Jail, and as a result Deputy Sheriff Jack Collier and an engineer were the only attaches of the institution on duty. The holiday, however, wasn't enjoyed by the prisoners. As the guard was limited in number they were not allowed in the corridors as on week days but were forced to stay within their cells. Only "Barney" and "Pete," the jail dogs, had the run of the place.

All courthouse offices, including the sheriff's, were closed. The injured feelings of the prisoners was assuaged by a special dinner in honor of the Nation's birthday.

BREAKS STORE WINDOW;
TAKES FLANNEL SHIRT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—The police today are looking for a man who wears a new blue flannel shirt, size 16, with the name of Joe Harris, 225 Embarcadero, stamped on the inside of the collar. Also, the same party is believed to be wearing a new yellow flannel undershirt with the same marks upon it. About 5 o'clock this morning Officer Scollin found the window of Harris' store broken. Later Harris took an inventory and appraised his loss at $4.

DISCUSS POLITICS; ONE
TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

William Ogilva, of San Francisco, a sailor, came to Oakland last night and met an affable stranger. The two became embroiled in a political argument, and as a result Ogilva was taken to the hospital with a knife wound in his left arm that required fourteen stitches. The man was unable to furnish the police a description of his assailant, who is declared to also be a sailor.

CHARLES DEVLIN.

Armed with a letter of introduction from Mayor Frank K. Mott to Mayor John Purroy Mitchell, Charles Devlin, the one-legged motorcycle rider who recently made a trip around the world, will leave from in front of the city hall at noon tomorrow on his trip to New York.

Devlin, who is a member of the Willow Tree Club of Oakland, composed of men and women who have lost one or more limbs, will also carry a letter from A. F. Bull, president of the organization.

Devlin lost his leg when 13 years old. He is now 26 and for years has lived a life of adventure in spite of his handicap. He has traveled in sixteen countries and has covered 46,000 miles. He has often been stranded in foreign countries but with his knowledge of English, French, German and Italian has always succeeded in finding his bearings again. He has traveled as a stowaway nine different times, and when he was not out of funds he was making his way from place to place lecturing his travels. He will leave without any money tomorrow, earning his way with his lectures.

Devlin said today that he is looking for a young woman to share his adventurous life with him. "She must be as full of the 'underland' as I am," said Devlin, "and if she is, I think that we can see the world and enjoy our travels." Devlin hopes to visit South America, South Africa and Australia before settling down.

DARING DRIVERS ENTER
TACOMA "AUTO CLASSIC"

TACOMA, Wash., July 4.—The Montamara trophy race, a distance of 250 miles, the automobile classic of the Northwest, and annually on the Tacoma Speedway, in connection with the Montamara Fests, was on this afternoon, with almost as formidable an array of speed demons entered as appeared at Indianapolis recently. The first car got away about 2 o'clock to the cheers of thousands of spectators crowding the grandstand and other thousands that jammed around the two-mile course.

Cash prizes amounted to $5500 and the perpetual challenge trophy will be awarded the winner. Before the winner crosses the line it was expected that the fastest time ever made here would be registered, as the speedway has been entirely rebuilt since last year. The new speedway is just outside the southern limits of the city, on a natural gravel base, with an asphalted surface. All curves are banked from 18 to 15 feet in height, making great speed possible. The races are being electrically timed and run under the sanction of the American Automobile Association. Among the entries are: Cooper in a Stutz, Tet-laff, Maxwell, Hughes, Maxwell; Carlson, Maxwell, Verbeck, Fiat, Burman, Burman Special; Pullen, Mercer; Gordon, Mercer; Klein, King; Taylor, Alco; De Alame, Marmora; Welsh, Fiat; Kennedy, Chalmers; Thomas, Locomobile; Barnes, Romano and Broch in a Ray machine.

SUPERVISOR WILL FACE ACCUSATIONS

Tuolumne Mafesance Case Results in Many Indictments.

SONORA, July 4.—Fourteen indictments have been returned by the county grand jury as a result of the sensational allegations of mafesance in office surrounding Supervisor V. A. Solari in the issuance of a liquor license and the discounting of bills against the county of Tuolumne.

Twelve indictments were found by the special grand jury against Solari, one for each of a series of alleged illegal manipulations of county claims. Solari has been arrested and is out under bonds. He is one of the wealthiest and most prominent residents of the county.

Belknap Indictments were returned against V. A. Solari.

H. Knowles, the former is alleged to have agreed to pay $100 to Solari for a liquor license and the latter to have been the go-between in the transaction.

The grand jury has been in session two weeks and has returned dozens of indictments, but the indictments created a tremendous sensation because of the prominence of the parties under investigation.

According to the testimony Solari, who is a supervisor, had agreed to see that the board granted Martinez a liquor license for the city hotel he was about to open, and was to receive $100 for his services in the matter. When the board met, however, the supervisors turned down the application, and later Solari explained that it was impossible to issue the license, because the applicants were not citizens.

Then followed the bribery charges. Solari admitted that he had been given $50, but declared that he had deposited it in his safe with a notation as to the contents, and had no intention of accepting the bribe, but wanted to use it to expose the men who sought to trap him. That explanation was apparently not accepted by the grand jury.

Solari is also alleged to have bought claims of workers on the county roads and to have later raised the amount of the warrants by forged figures, then cashing them. Eleven of the indictments returned against him were because of this alleged wholesale cashing of fictitious claims against the county. The amount of the loss which he caused the county has not been determined. The grand jury also returned five indictments for the illegal sale of liquor. The grand jury has not been excused, but has taken a recess, and other sessions are anticipated.

AGED HUNTER IS BUCK'S SLAYER

Octogenarian Bags Deer When Younger Men Fail in Chase.

SANTA ROSA, July 4.—Richard Crane, one of the best-known Sonoma county pioneers, who is eighty-six years old, went hunting in the Mendocino county hills, following a custom of many years, and brought down his buck, a magnificent four-point. For upwards of fifty years Crane has gone hunting regularly every season, and he says he will continue to do so for years, as he is hoping to live to see a century pass over his head.

CHICO, July 4.—After enjoying a vacation of several weeks, Dr. A. F. Birch, pioneer eye specialist of this city, suffered a stroke of paralysis and died, five hours after they said goodbye.

MODESTO, July 4.—Three more violators of the speed laws were arrested yesterday by Officer Saxby. C. C. Eberhart, secretary of the Fresno District Fair Association was arrested on the 5th and 6th roads while driving his machine at about forty miles per hour.

MARTINEZ, July 4.—Articles of incorporation of the Richmond Belt Railway, a $500,000 corporation, were filed with the Contra Costa county clerk yesterday. The company will operate a line from San Pablo wharf to Richmond. Its directors are W. S. Tevis, Clinton Worthington, H. A. V. de Laveaga and Horace Pillsbury.

FRESNO, July 4.—Arlington Heights yesterday voted to come into city of Fresno. Three hundred and twenty-seven votes were cast, 170 for annexation and 157 against. Arlington Heights includes seventy-two blocks and has about 1000 residents. Annexation means improvements for the residents. Opponents fought hard on the grounds of higher tax rates.

FRESNO, July 4.—John Riley, rancher, residing at Corcoran, Kings county, received word yesterday that his son, Richard Riley, had been killed in an automobile accident at Paso Robles and that the young man was on his way to Los Angeles to spend the Fourth when the car turned turtle.

OAKLAND'S ORGANIZED
MUSICIANS TO PARADE

An interesting parade will take place on Monday, July 12, when thousands of organized Oakland musicians will march through the city, passing Twelfth street and Broadway precisely at noon.

Across the day observation of musicians' day will be made the days later, when, on the 15th of the month, 10,000 people, accompanied by a band of 250, and headed by Mayor Rolph, will parade down Market street en route for Shellmound park, where popular music will be rendered throughout the day, as well as a grand concert given by a large band under the leadership of Charles Cassessa, David Roncoveri. The San Francisco committee of arrangements will include: C. H. King, chairman; A. J. Glavin, secretary; E. E. Witherall, George Kittler, W. Weber, W. H. Lee, A. L. Gath, W. Schafer, W. Belard, W. Fabris, E. Moore, J. Fitzgerald, G. Pinto, W. H. Nolting, J. Aikens, J. Fabris and W. B. Backsted.

BARD GRANTED AUDIENCE

BUENOS AYRES, July 4.—Dr. Victoriano, a poet and author, president of the republic, yesterday received in audience starr brown bard, director of the Pan-American division of the American Association for International Communication. Later the minister of instruction gave a banquet in honor of Mr. Bard and the American educators, who are accompanying him on his tour of the South American republics.

CONVENTION FOR
OAKLAND ASSURED

1915 National Education Session in This City Conceded at St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, July 4.—It was generally conceded that Oakland, Cal., would be the next meeting place in 1915 of the National Education Association, the fifty-second annual convention of which opened here today.

Discussion of problems confronting the school superintendent and of conditions prevalent in rural schools marked the opening session today.

Speaking before the National Council of Education, Lloyd E. Wolfe of San Antonio, Texas, advocated uniform selection and promotion of teachers on merit, and urged nation-wide co-operation "for the solution of problems that go to the national prosperity.

Abolition of the district system and the introduction of the county unit of administration, elective to give place to the appointive superintendent and special normal school courses to adequately prepare teachers for rural positions, were advocated by Arthur H. Chamberlain of San Francisco.

The first general session proper of the convention will be held Monday.

Wolfe had the first delegates spoken when talk of a successor to Professor Joseph Swain began. The South Carolina delegation started a lively campaign in behalf of Dr. D. B. Johnson president of Winthrop Normal and Industrial College, Rock Hill, S. C. Others who have been prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency are David Starr Jordan, formerly president of Leland Stanford University, and L. R. Alderman, city superintendent of schools, Portland, Ore.

SAYS SPIRIT CONTROLS
ESTRANGED HUSBAND

"The spirits" told Harry Huxtable to have nothing further to do with his wife, according to her divorce complaint filed in the Superior Court, and she, by legal action, is "beating him to it." Further, she alleges in her complaint, that the fact that her husband is a spiritualist, goes into trances and has spirits of assorted variety about the house constitutes cruelty.

Mrs. Kittle Huxtable, therefore, has filed suit against her husband, asking legal separation and alimony.

Mrs. Anne Perrin was granted a decree in the Superior Court yesterday from Charles Perrin alleging cruelty. Mrs. Kate Rounsevell obtained a divorce from Nelson Rounsevell, charging habitual intemperance.

A Nation-Wide
Service

STATE lines no not limit the service of the Bell Telephone. Every Bell Telephone, wherever located, is an open door to practically unlimited service.

Many Bell Telephones are on isolated farms or ranches. Each Bell Telephone, wherever located, is connected with an exchange which opens the door of communication with the whole country.

It makes no difference whether the exchange group is large or small, because through connected Bell exchanges each Bell telephone has a radius of communication which includes every other Bell Telephone withing speaking distance.

Every Bell Telephone is
